INTRODUCTION 2011

On behalf of Horse Racing Ireland, I am pleased to present the Irish Racing Fact Book for the year 2011 which includes a wide range of statistical data relating to the racing and breeding industry in Ireland. Racecourse attendances and bloodstock sales in 2011 were the source of good news as were the Tote turnover figures, driven by growth in international co-mingling deals.

The average attendance at race meetings in 2011 was 3682, up 3% from 3586. The growth in racecourse attendance is particularly welcome given the pressure that leisure and retail markets generally have been under. Tote betting was €51.1 million, up 11.3% from €45.9 million, with most of the increase generated by international co-mingling deals. The Tote has been very active in building its online and mobile presence, including the launch of a new app for the iPhone.

Bloodstock sales were the star performer, growing 19% to €81 million from €68 million, giving hope that this all-important part of the rural economy can deliver real growth for Ireland.

There were, however, a number of disappointing figures, - the number of new owners registered levelled off a fraction above the 2010 figure at 777, but the total ownership figure fell 8.3% from 4,667 to 4,278, while the average number of horses in training fell from 5,769 to 5,030, the lowest number in ten years. This figure is a cause for real concern as this is the area where rural employment is most affected.

Bookmakers' betting on-course fell from €107.4 million to €97.5million, reflecting the twin challenges of the recession and online wagering, while prize-money fell from €46.0 million to €44.4 million and is now at its lowest level since 2002. Off course betting in bookmaker shops amounted to €2.7 billion.

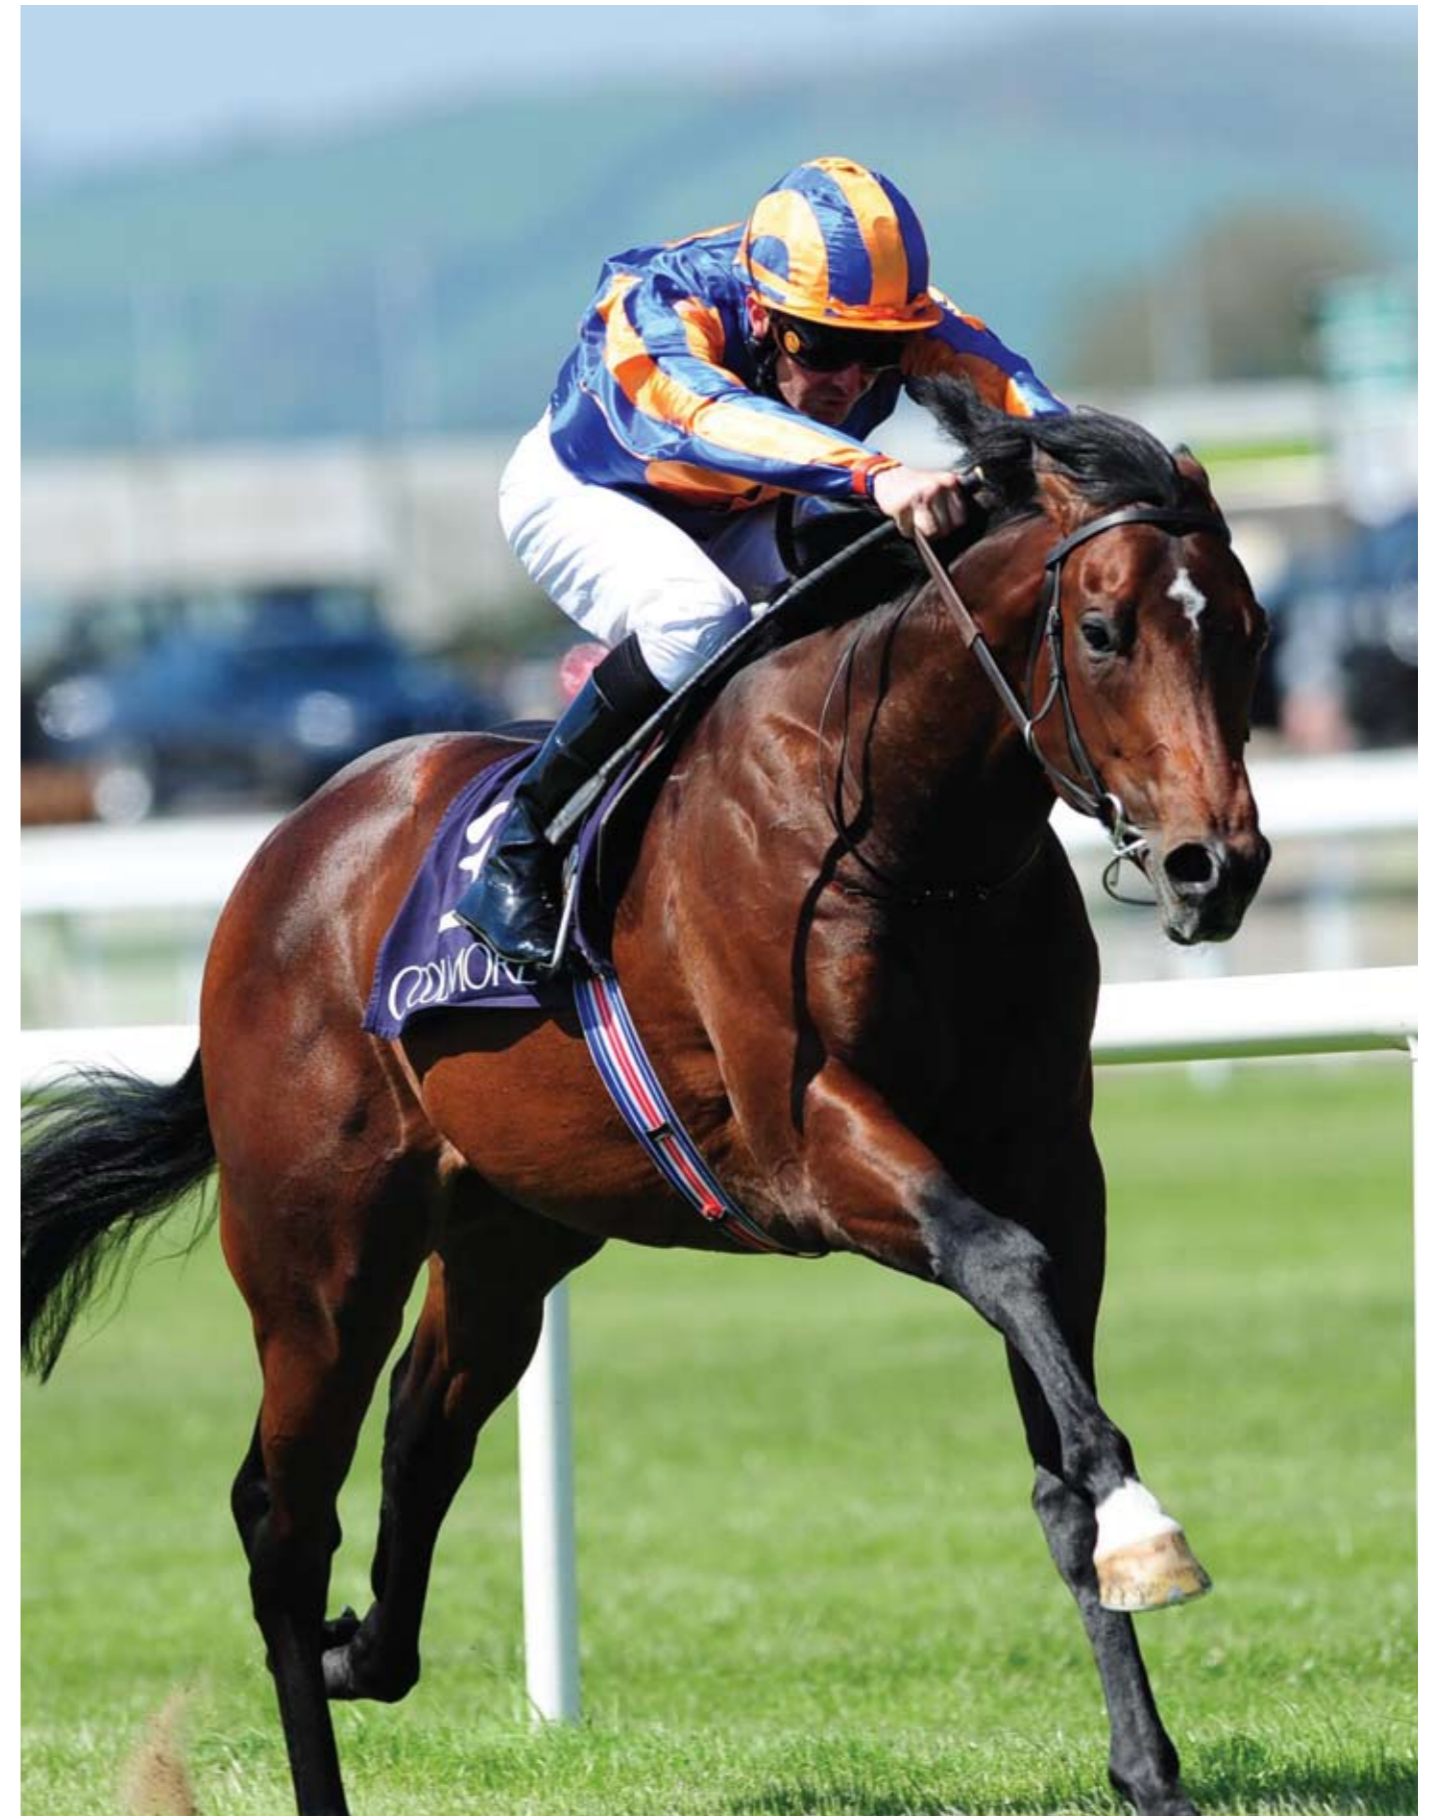

Irish-trained horses had remarkable success in the UK and overseas, with a 53% increase in prize money won abroad from €8.5 million in 2010 to €13 million. Irish trainers' achievements are reflected in the World Thoroughbred Rankings for 2011, with six of the top ten and fourteen of the top thirty two-year-olds Irish-trained.

Irish racing's recovery is being limited by cutbacks to its budget, totalling 26% since 2008 as a consequence of low betting duties and the movement of betting revenues online and off-shore. Our prize money is at its lowest level for ten years, at a time when other major European racing countries are announcing increases.

The Government's plans to extend betting duty to remote betting and exchanges and to carry out a review of the industry, offer the prospect of a secure funding mechanism for racing and we look forward to working with Minister Coveney and his Department on this task.

I congratulate all the leading owners, trainers, jockeys and horses for their outstanding contributions last year, and I wish them and all others involved in this great industry a successful 2012.

Brian Kavanagh
Chief Executive

JANUARY 2011

The MCR Hurdle at Leopardstown is always the highlight of the opening weeks of the year, as well as being one of the most competitive races of the entire racing calendar, but this year's renewal was turned into something of a procession by the Willie Mullins-trained Final Approach. Ridden by Paul Townend, the five-year-old was in command from early in the straight and eventually had two lengths to spare over his stable mate Call The Police. Away from the main event, Dessie Hughes was the star performer, completing a big-race double courtesy of the wins of the Davy Russell-ridden Magnanimity in the Grade 2 Tote Pick Six Killiney Novice Chase and the Paddy Flood-ridden Rare Bob in the Tote Pick Six Every Sunday Leopardstown Handicap Chase.

The following week saw the promising young trainer David Marnane make an immediate impact with his first runner at the Dubai Carnival, saddling Dandy Boy to record an easy success in the valuable Dolce Vita Handicap at Meydan. Ridden by Colm O'Donoghue, the five-year-old was sent to the front 1f out and ran out the 13/4 lengths winner, stamping himself as a leading Irish prospect for the remainder of the Carnival.

The collective will of the racing world was not enough to see Kauto Star home in the King George VI Chase at Kempton the following Saturday. Paul Nicholl's stable star looked in trouble from some way out under Tony McCoy and his bid for a historic fifth win in the race was ended by a shuddering mistake at the penultimate fence. His misfire allowed the Nicky Henderson-trained Long Run to run out the impressive winner under his amateur rider Sam Waley-Cohen, with his stable mate Riverside Theatre taking second.

Back on the domestic front, Willie Mullins and Paul Townend continued their domination of the Irish big-race scene at Leopardstown, completing a double that included the featured Grade 1 BHP Insurances Irish Champion Hurdle with Hurricane Fly. Now without question Ireland's best hurdler, the seven-year-old was always travelling well and having led before the final flight, he readily stretched away to record an easy 3 1/2 lengths success. The other Grade 1 on the card was the Frank Ward Solicitors Arkle Novice Chase and it was the Noel Meade-trained, Paul Carberry-ridden Realt Dubh that took the spoils in a thrilling contest.

The twice postponed Connolly's Red Mills Thyestes Handicap Chase meeting finally took place at Gowran Park on the final Friday of the month and it was the Dessie Hughes-trained Siegemaster that took the spoils in an exciting renewal of the feature race. A rare winning top-weight in the historic race, Davy Russell gave the 10-year-old a strong ride on his way to recording a hard-fought 3/4 length success.

The closing days of the month saw Punchestown Racecourse achieve something of a milestone, becoming the first racecourse in Ireland to successfully utilise covers to protect their racing ground from frost. Thanks to the measures taken in the days leading up to their Tied Cottage Chase card, all the races bar the cross-country chase went ahead as scheduled. Champion Trainer Willie Mullins completely dominated proceedings, saddling the winners of five of the six races on the card, including the feature race with Golden Silver. Given an excellent ride by Paul Townend, the nine-year-old hit the front in the closing stages to get the better of his old rival Big Zeb by half a length.

“ Navan was host to three Grade 2 contests on Sunday and Colm Murphy scooped two of them ”

The month began with the Irish racing industry being held in a firm grip by Willie Mullins. The Champion Trainer had been even more dominant than usual and following his wins in the two most valuable races at Clonmel in the opening days of the month (including a 1-2 in the featured Listed Surehaul Mercedes-Benz Novice Hurdle), Mullins had won nine of the previous 11 races he had a runner in, which was a truly remarkable statistic.

The Irish racing scene was plunged into sadness just a few days later with news that amateur rider Jack Tyner, who had been in an induced coma since a fall at a point-to-point in Dungarvan five days previously, had died early on Monday February 7th just hours after undergoing surgery. The only son of trainer Robert Tyner and his wife Mary, the 19-year-old had been treated for a serious head injury at Cork University Hospital following the heavy fall.

Jessica Harrington continued her remarkable year at Leopardstown the following Saturday, combining with Robbie Power to complete a Grade 1 double. They opened their respective accounts courtesy of the very game win of Boston's Angel in the Dr. P.J. Moriarty Novice Chase and completed their braces in the strongly-contested Deloitte Novice Hurdle, with their Oscar Wells running out the highly-impressive winner. Willie Mullins was not to be denied his place in the spotlight, as he saddled Kempes to win the featured Hennessy Gold Cup in good style under David Casey. The other Grade 1 on the card was the opening Tote Jackpot Races 3-6 Spring Juvenile Hurdle and it was the Dermot Weld-trained Unaccompanied that ran out the impressive three lengths winner under Paul Townend.

Navan was the host to three Grade 2 contests on Sunday and Colm Murphy scooped two of them, with Voler La Vedette taking centre stage by running out the easy winner of the featured Ladbrokes.com Boyne Hurdle under Andrew Lynch. Murphy's other Grade 2 success came in the Ten Up Novice Chase, with the Davy Russell-ridden Quito De La Roque running out the easy four lengths winner.

Over at Meydan, Tracey Collins followed in the footsteps of Dave Marnane to become the second Irish trainer to saddle a winner at the Dubai Racing

Carnival, sending out Across The Rhine to win a valuable 7f handicap at Meydan. Ridden by Willie Supple, the five-year-old made all the running and had just enough in reserve to claim the €68,000 pot by a neck.

The Grade 2 Red Mills Trial Hurdle was the co-main event on Saturday's card at Gowran Park and it saw the Philip Fenton-trained Dinguib make an impressive winning seasonal reappearance under Brian O'Connell. The other co-main event on the card was the Grade 2 Red Mills Chase and it saw the Robbie Hennessy-trained Rubi Light produce an impressive winning performance under Andrew Lynch.

As had been the case at so many Irish race meetings the previous months, Willie Mullins was completely dominant at Naas the following Sunday, completing a four timer that included two of the three Grade 2 contests. Paul Townend was in the saddle for both of those big wins, riding Golden Silver to win the paddypower.com Chase and Dare To Doubt to win the paddypower.com Novice Hurdle.

It was more of the same at Fairyhouse the following Wednesday, with Mullins completing a double on the card that included a 1-2 in the featured Grade 2 At The Races Bobbyjo Chase. The Paul Townend-ridden The Midnight Club led home the charge, beating off the challenge of his stable mate Arbor Supreme by an authoritative length.

The month was rounded off at Thurles with the Grade 2 Michael Purcell Memorial Novice Hurdle producing a promising winner in the Shark Hanlon-trained Hidden Cyclone. The six-year-old was always travelling like the winner and despite idling in front, he had 2¹/₂ lengths to spare at the line under Andrew McNamara.

MARCH 2011

As well as the 13 Irish-trained winners of the 27 races at the Festival, there were also 22 Irish-ridden winners and 15 Irish-bred horses

The month of March is all about the Cheltenham Festival and the first day of the festivities saw Irish-based trainers saddling three of the seven winners. The highlight unquestionably came in the featured Grade 1 Stan James Champion Hurdle Challenge Trophy, with the Willie Mullins-trained Hurricane Fly running out the comfortable winner under Ruby Walsh to stamp himself as the best hurdler in the land. Mullins and Ruby enjoyed another memorable success just over an hour later, with Quevega producing a highly-impressive performance to win the Grade 2 David Nicholson Mares' Hurdle for the third year in succession. In between those wins, the Irish completed a 1-2-3 in the Glenfarclas Cross Country Chase, with the Henry De Bromhead-trained Sizing Australia taking the spoils under Andrew Lynch.

Remarkably, better still would be forthcoming for the Irish on the second day of the meeting, with Irish-trained horses winning six of the seven races on the card in an unbelievable run of success. Gordon Elliott got the ball rolling by sending out the Derek O'Connor-ridden Chicago Grey to win the opening National Hunt Chase and he would go on to complete a memorable double on the card by saddling the Davy Russell-ridden Carlito Brigante to win the Coral Cup in smooth style. That latter win also completed a double for Russell and owner Gigginstown House Stud, as they had already won the Grade 1 Neptune Investment Management Novices' Hurdle on the Mouse Morris-trained First Lieutenant.

Jessica Harrington's unbelievable year got even better later on that card, as she sent out the Robbie Power-ridden Bostons Angel to win the Grade 1 RSA Chase, while her Kildare compatriot Arthur Moore showed he still has what it takes by sending out What A Charm to land a notable gamble in the Fred Winter Juvenile Handicap Hurdle under Paul Townend. As well as all those successes, the Irish also enjoyed a clean sweep in the feature race of the day, the Grade 1 sportingbet.com Queen Mother Champion Chase, with the Henry De Bromhead-trained, Andrew Lynch-ridden Sizing Europe leading home an Irish-trained 1-2-3-4 with an exceptional winning performance.

While Irish-trained horses have tended to struggle on the Thursday of the Cheltenham Festival, that fact didn't prevent them equalling the record of 10 Irish-trained winners at the Festival courtesy of the win of the Paul Nolan-trained Noble Prince in the opening Grade 2 Jewson Novices' Chase.

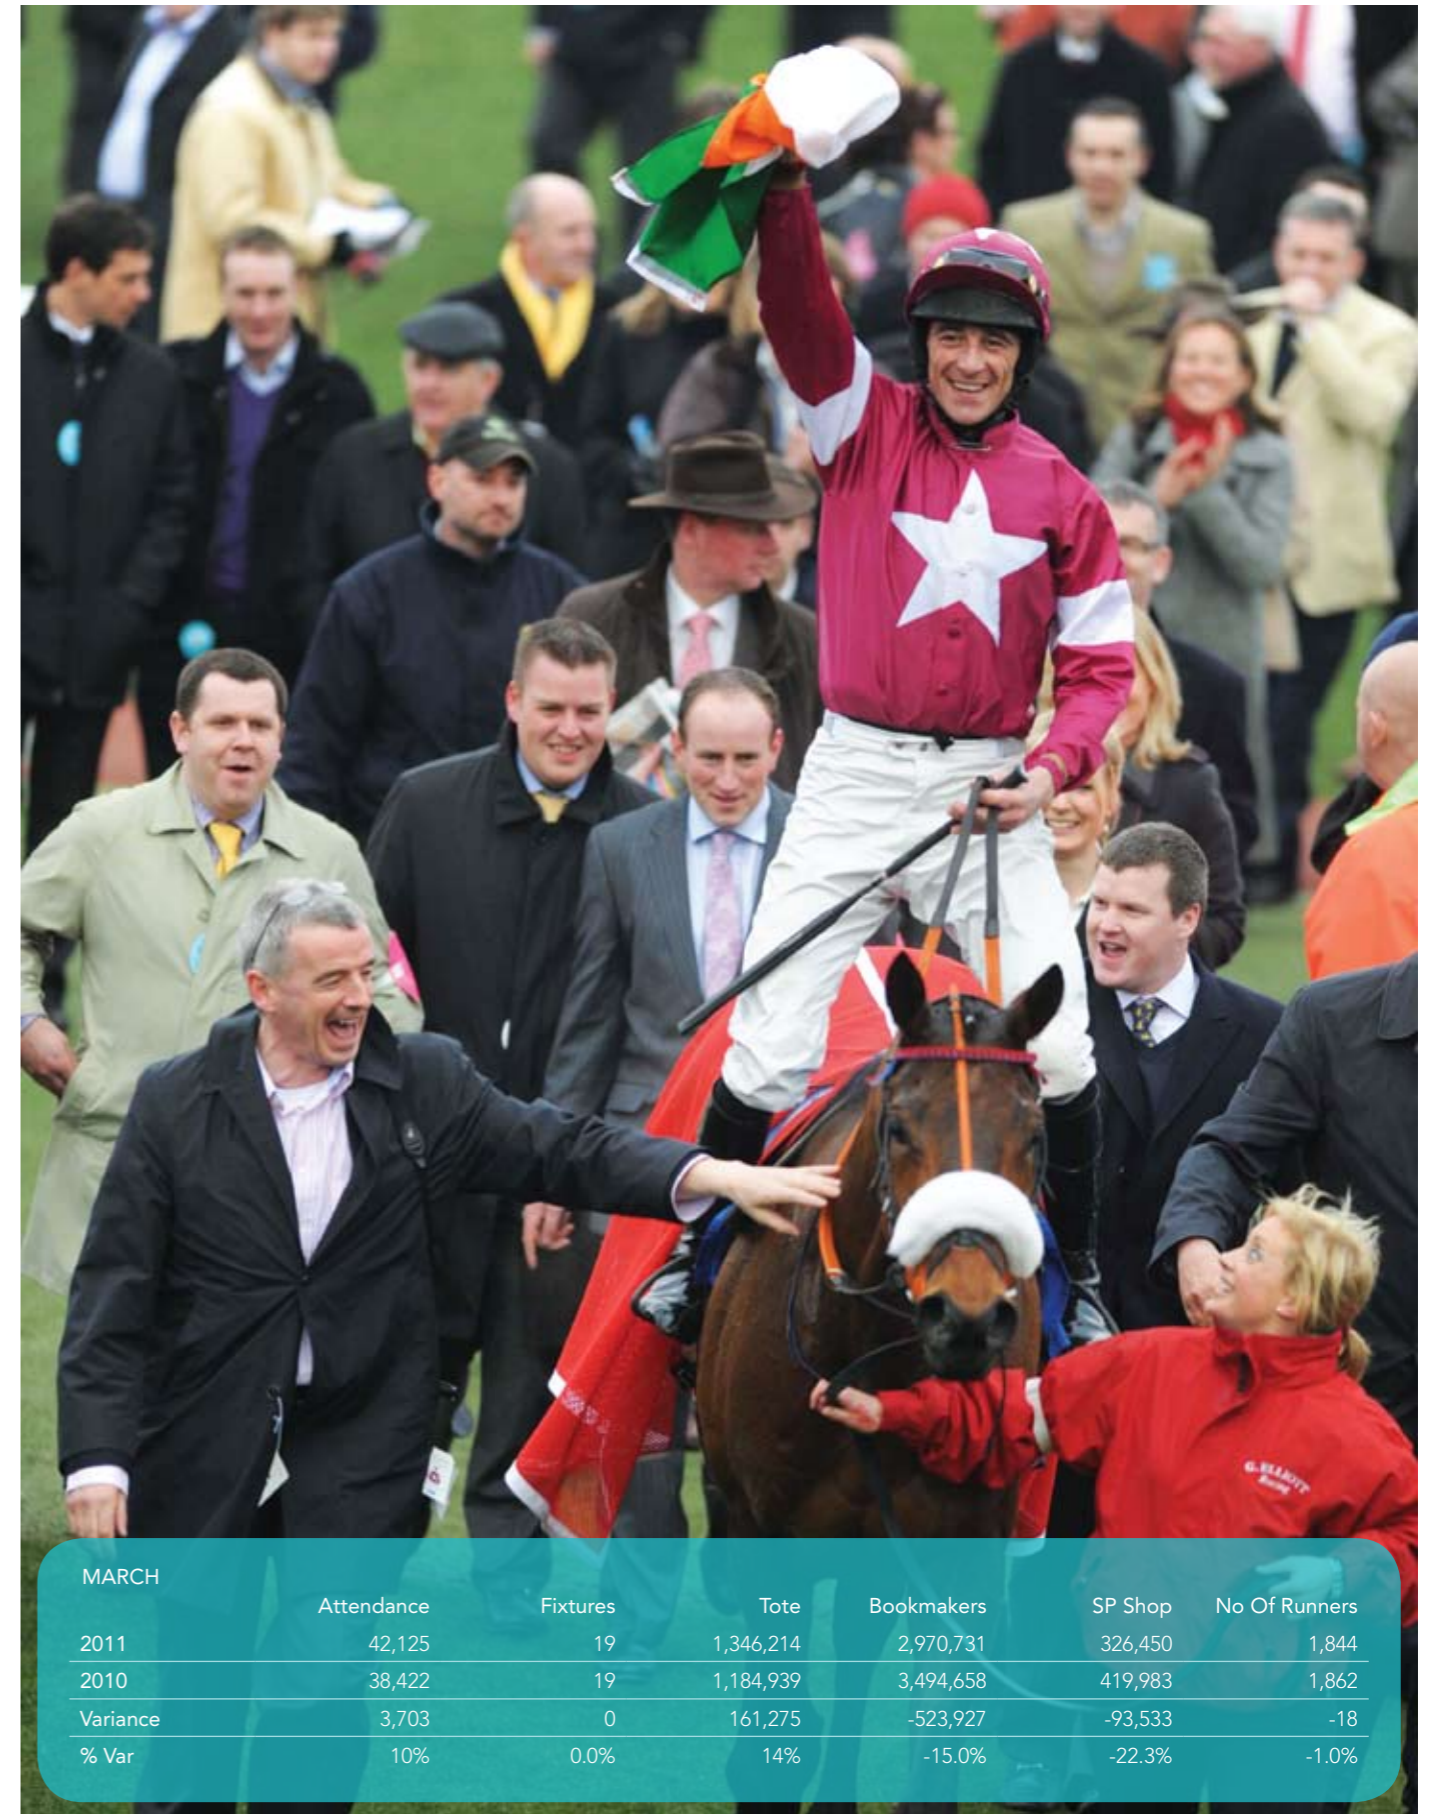

Needing just one winner on the final day of the Cheltenham Festival to break the previous record, Irish-trained horses won no less than three races on the card, bringing their Festival total to a remarkable 13. Willie Mullins was the star turn on the day, saddling Final Approach to win a thrilling renewal of the Vincent O'Brien County Hurdle under Ruby Walsh and Sir Des Champs to secure a similarly last-gasp win in the Martin Pipe Conditional Jockeys' Handicap Hurdle under Emmet Mullins. In between those wins, Ian Ferguson sent out Zemsky to record a wide-margin win in the Christie's Foxhunter Chase Challenge Cup.

As well as the 13 Irish-trained winners of the 27 races at the Festival, there were also 22 Irish-ridden winners and 15 Irish-bred horses. Willie Mullins was the leading trainer, Ruby Walsh the leading rider and Michael O'Leary's Gigginstown House Stud the leading owner of the meeting.

Just a few days after Cheltenham ended, the Flat season got underway at the Curragh and not for the first time in recent years, Tommy Stack was the man to follow, saddling a double that included the featured Group 3 Lodge Park Stud EBF Park Express Stakes with the Wayne Lordan-ridden Lolly For Dolly. The main supporting race on the card was the www.thetote.com Irish Lincolnshire and it produced a shock 25/1 winner in the shape of the Andrew McNamara-trained, Ben Curtis-ridden Drombeg Dawn.

The month was wrapped up by the Guineas Trials meeting at Leopardstown and the star performance came from the Aidan O'Brien-trained Empowering in the Group 3 Leopardstown 1,000 Guineas Trial Stakes. Ridden by the trainer's son Joseph, the daughter of Encosta De Lago made all the running and galloped on relentlessly to record a 1³/₄ lengths success. The other co-main event was the Group 3 Leopardstown 2,000 Guineas Trial Stakes and it saw the Kevin Prendergast-trained Dunboyne Express record an easy success under Declan McDonogh.

On the second day of the Fairyhouse proceedings, Nina Carberry had a day that will surely rank as one of the greatest of her career, riding Organisedconfusion to win the featured Ladbrokes Irish Grand National

The spring National Hunt festival bandwagon rolled into Aintree at the beginning of the month and while the Grand National went the way of the Donald McCain-trained Ballabriggs, Irish-trained horses enjoyed more than their share of success at the meeting. Gordon Elliott saddled two winners, with the highlight being the win of Steps To Freedom in the Grade 2 John Smith's Champion Standard

Open National Hunt Flat Race under Paul Carberry. Colm Murphy enjoyed a notable success with the Davy Russell-ridden Quito De La Roque in the Grade 2 John Smith's Mildmay Novices' Chase, while Paul Nolan also got in on the act, saddling Far Away So Close to win the John Smith's Handicap Hurdle under Michael Doran.

Back on the domestic Flat scene, Jim Bolger and Kevin Manning continued their fast starts to the season at Leopardstown, teaming up to complete a double that included the featured Group 3 P.W. McGrath Memorial Ballysax Stakes with Banimpire. Dermot Weld was also in double form, with the highlight being the win of the ever-green Famous Name in the Listed Heritage Stakes under Pat Smullen.

The following week, quite a few of Ireland's top point-to-point performers went under the hammer at Brightwells Cheltenham Sale and the results were very positive. Mount Benbulbin, the very exciting point-to-point and dual bumper winner for Gillian Callaghan, topped the sale by selling for £250,000 to Boher Bloodstock. Dromahane point-to-pointer winner Italian Master fell to the bid of Aiden Murphy for £240,000, while John Nallen's Minella For Steak sold for £230,000.

The following Sunday, much of the focus at Navan was on the return to action of the four-time Group 1 winner Fame And Glory in the Listed Vintage Crop Stakes and Aidan O'Brien's charge duly justified his 2/9 price tag. Ridden by Jamie Spencer, the five-year-old was quite workmanlike in seeing off the late challenge of Nebula Storm by half a length, but looked sure to come on from the run and go on to better things later in the season.

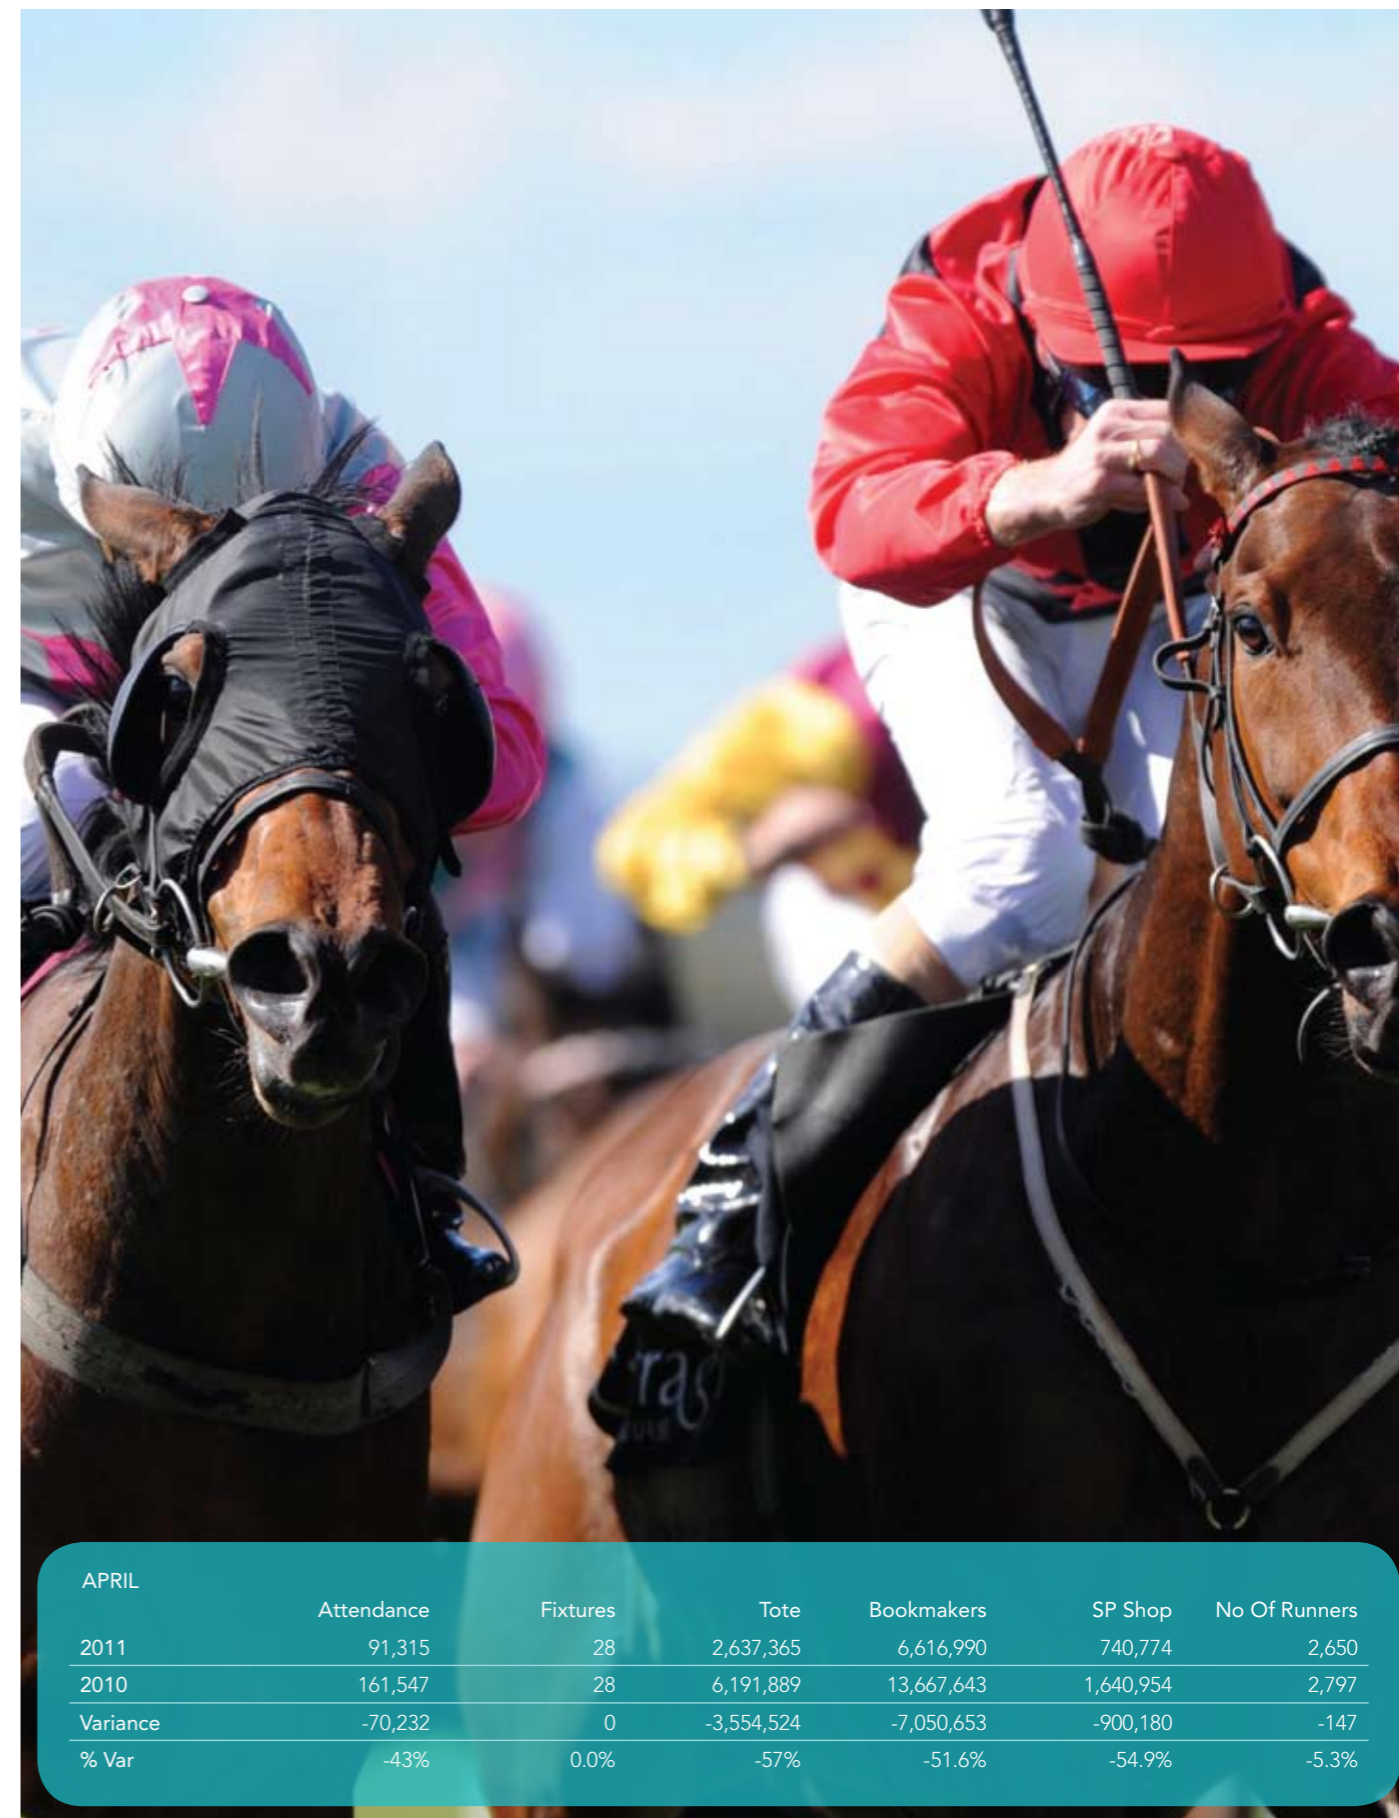

A week later, the Fairyhouse Easter Festival got underway and the featured Grade 1 Powers Gold Cup was won by the Noel Meade-trained Realt Dubh, but the result may have been different if his old rival Noble Prince had not fallen at the penultimate fence. The eventual winner was in close pursuit of that rival at the time of his exit, but whether Paul Carberry's mount would have got to him was a subject of debate.

On the second day of the Fairyhouse proceedings, Nina Carberry had a day that will surely rank as one of the greatest of her career, riding Organisedconfusion to win the featured Ladbrokes Irish Grand National for her uncle, Arthur Moore. At what is her local track, Nina sent the six-year-old to the front after the penultimate fence and looked to be in control soon after, eventually having five lengths to spare over Western Charmer.

Later that week it emerged that the legendary sire Sadler's Wells had died from natural causes at the age of 30. The son of Northern Dancer was trained in Ballydoyle by Vincent O'Brien for Robert Sangster and won the Irish 2000 Guineas in 1984, the Eclipse and Irish Champion Stakes before retiring to Coolmore Stud. It was there that Sadler's Wells came into his own, being crowned Champion Sire on a record breaking 14 occasions and his offspring included such greats as Galileo, Montjeu, High Chaparral, Istabraq, Old Vic and Yeats.

The month was closed with the emergence of a new equine superstar after the Henry Cecil-trained Frankel obliterated his opposition in the Qipco 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. The son of Galileo produced a truly sensational performance, racing into a clear lead soon after the start under Irishman Tom Queally and having all of his rivals in trouble not long after halfway, keeping up the gallop to record a ruthless six lengths success. The style of the win was unprecedented and the margin of victory was the widest in the race since Tudor Minstrel in 1947.

// The extremely popular mare Quevega lit up proceedings on the third day of the Punchestown Festival //

The month kicked off with the Australian superstar So You Think making a highly-impressive Irish debut in the Group 3 High Chaparral EBF Mooresbridge Stakes at the Curragh, with Aidan O'Brien's charge bolting up by no less than ten lengths. Ridden by Seamie Heffernan, the son of High Chaparral powered clear in the straight in a performance that oozed class.

The attention was soon back on the National Hunt action, with the opening day of the Punchestown Festival proving to be a red-letter day for trainer Colm Murphy, with him saddling the winners of two of the three Grade 1 contests on the card. His top-class chaser Big Zeb got the ball rolling in the BoyleSports.com Champion Chase, with Barry Geraghty's mount gaining revenge over his Cheltenham conqueror Sizing Europe in a thrilling contest. Murphy doubled his Grade 1 tally by sending out the relentless galloper Quito De La Roque to grind out a 14 lengths success in the Growise Champion Novice Chase under Davy Russell.

The Grade 1 Punchestown Guinness Gold Cup was the main event on the second day of the Punchestown Festival and it produced a shock result, with Follow The Plan capitalising on very disappointing runs from the British raiders Kauto Star and Nacarat, as well as the final fence fall of Roberto Goldback. Oliver McKiernan's charge looked set to finish second only to be left clear at the last and Tom Doyle's mount eventually came home 11 lengths in front.

The extremely popular mare Quevega lit up proceedings on the third day of the Punchestown Festival, winning the Grade 1 Ladbrokes.com World Series Hurdle in tremendously impressive fashion. The Willie Mullins-trained seven-year-old travelled in typically strong style and quickened to lead before the final flight, only to make a bad mistake at that obstacle, but Ruby Walsh didn't have to get too serious with her to reassert and beat her stable mate Mourad by an easy 1 1/4 lengths.

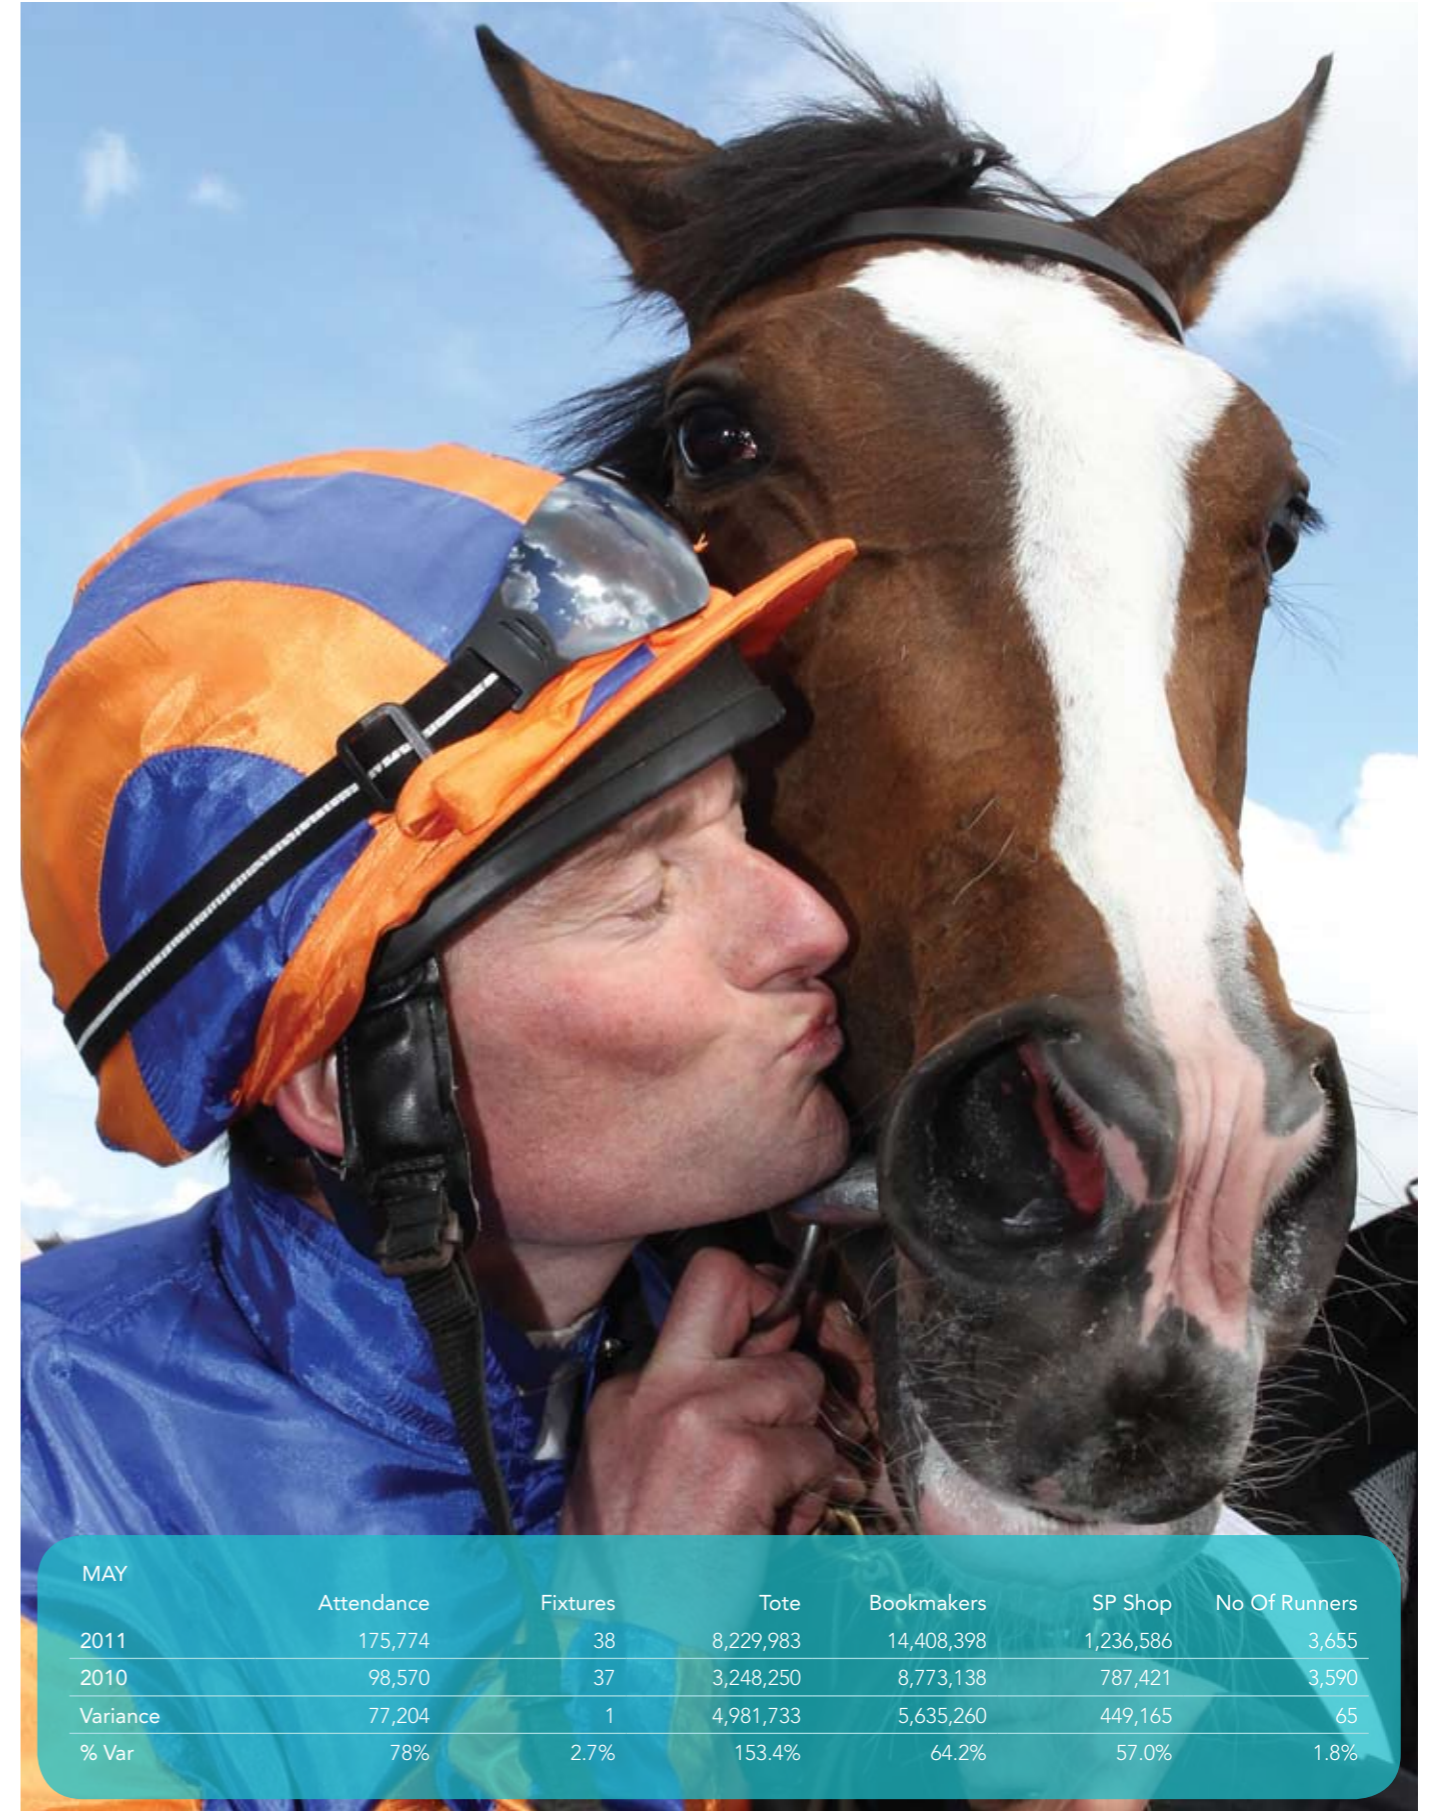

Perhaps the highlight of the whole Punchestown Festival came on the Friday with Hurricane Fly confirming his position as the most exciting hurdler since Istabraq by completing his perfect season with a deeply impressive win in the featured Grade 1 Rabobank Champion Hurdle. Willie Mullins' stable star could seldom have produced a more explosive performance, sprinting away from his stable mate Thousand Stars to record a very easy five lengths win under Ruby Walsh, with the British raiders Binocular and Menorah languishing in third and fourth respectively.

The Punchestown Festival was a great success on many levels, with the attendance for the entire five-day Festival being 95,066 (up 1,599 on 2010). The Tote figure for the week was also well up at €4,340,794 (€4,070,978 in 2010).

The attentions of the racing public soon returned to the Flat and the small matter of the first Classic of the Irish Flat season, the Abu Dhabi Irish 2,000 Guineas at the Curragh. The feature race produced a famous family success, with Aidan and Joseph O'Brien combining with Roderic O'Connor to take the spoils. The son of Galileo was given a well judged front running ride by Joseph and had 3/4 length to spare over the British raider Dubawi Gold at the line.

The following day, Aidan O'Brien was in dominant form on Irish 1,000 Guineas day at the Curragh, completing a remarkable four-timer that included both Group 1 contests on the card. The highlight of his lucrative days work came in the Group 1 Etihad Airways Irish 1,000 Guineas, with the Seamie Heffernan-ridden Misty For Me bouncing back to form with a typically game performance, beating off the challenge of her stable mate Together by 3/4 length. O'Brien's other Group 1 win came courtesy of the immensely exciting So You Think in the Tattersalls Gold Cup, with the son of High Chaparral bolting up under Ryan Moore.

“ Royal Ascot is always one of the most high-profile meetings of the year and there was plenty of Irish success to report in 2011. ”

The first Group 1 action of the month took place at Epsom's Derby meeting and Aidan O'Brien got on the Group 1 scoreboard on the Friday, winning a thrilling renewal of the Investec Coronation Cup with the Ryan Moore-ridden St Nicholas Abbey. However, O'Brien was out of the luck in the feature events of the meeting, saddling Wonder Of Wonders to finish second in the Investec Oaks and Treasure Beach to finish second in the Investec Derby.

Back on the domestic scene, Derek O'Connor secured his eighth Point to Point Jockeys' Championship win on the last day of the season at Ballygarry. O'Connor led nearest rival Jamie Codd by four winners going into the final meeting and extended that margin by two, with Codd riding a double and O'Connor partnering four winners. O'Connor's total of 110 wins was three less than he achieved in his record breaking 2008/9 season.

Royal Ascot is always one of the most high-profile meetings of the year and there was plenty of Irish success to report in 2011. Aidan O'Brien made a solid start to the meeting on Tuesday, saddling the Ryan Moore-ridden Power to win the Coventry Stakes. While the son of Oasis Dream had to survive a stewards' inquiry, the neck victory was never considered likely to be overturned.

The following day, Tommy Stack and Wayne Lordan ensured that the Tipperary flag was flown high at Royal Ascot, with them teaming up with Lolly For Dolly to record an authoritative success in the Group 2 Windsor Forest Stakes. There was however a major disappointment for Aidan O'Brien in the featured Prince of Wales's Stakes, with the seemingly unbeatable So You Think getting caught close home by the Mahmood Al Zarooni-trained, Frankie Dettori-ridden Rewilding in a thrilling contest.

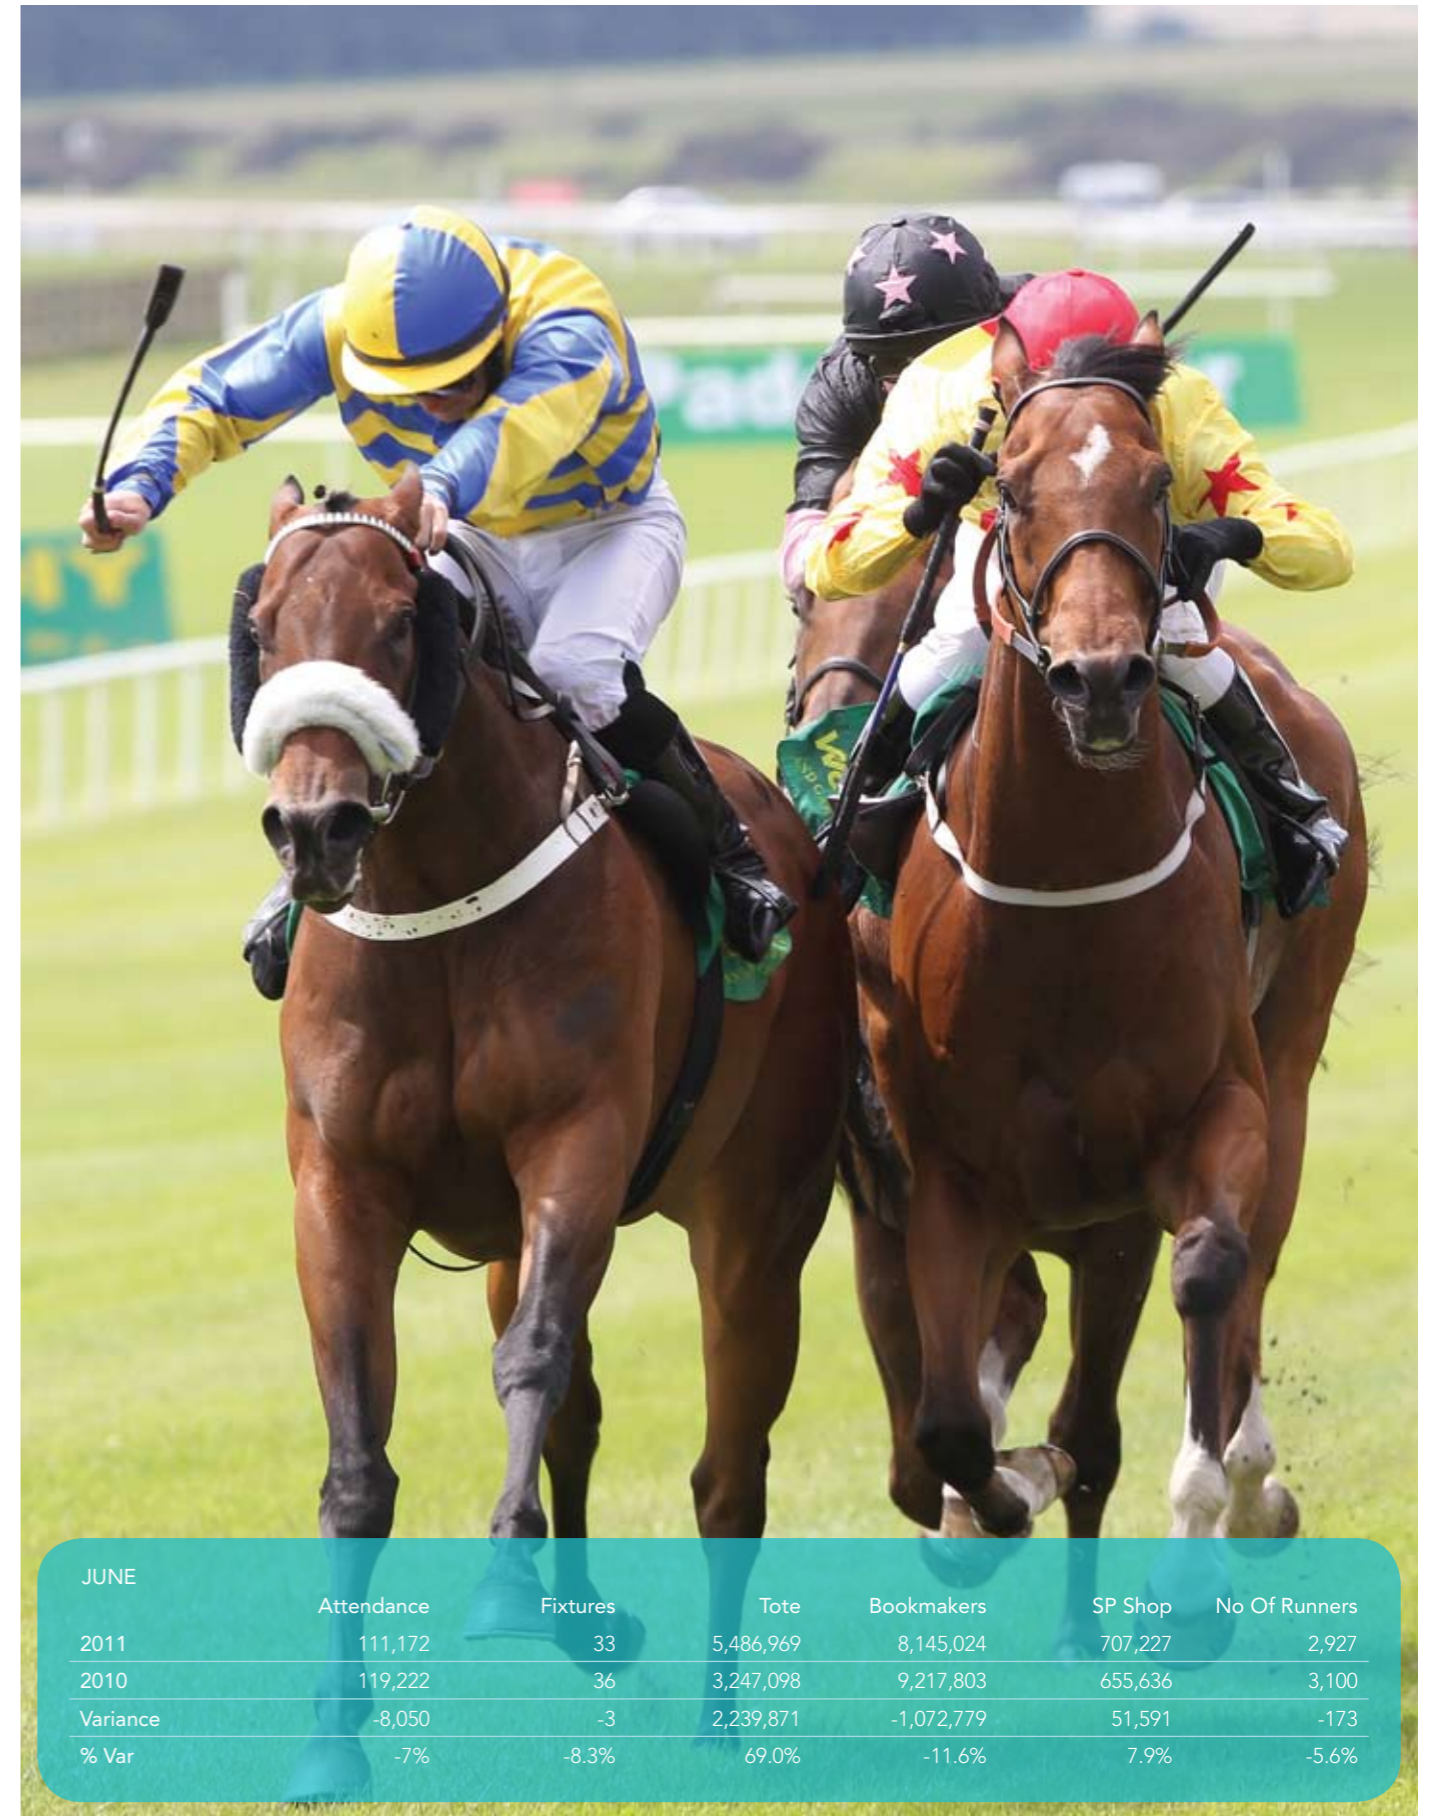

Aidan O'Brien got his week at Royal Ascot back on track the very next day by saddling Fame And Glory to win the featured Group 1 Ascot Gold Cup under Jamie Spencer. The high-class five-year-old was backed to the exclusion of everything else and under a cool ride, he hit the front over a furlong out and drew clear to record a comfortable three lengths success. That wasn't the only Irish success on the card, as Jim Bolger's remarkably tough filly Banimpire ground out a typically game win in the Group 2

Aidan O'Brien had a dream finish to Royal Ascot on the Saturday, teaming up with Ryan Moore to win the first two races on the card with exceptionally promising performers. Their first win came in the Listed Chesham Stakes, with Maybe maintaining her unbeaten record with an impressive 2 1/4 lengths success. Even better was to come in the Group 2 Hardwicke Stakes, with Await The Dawn confirming that he is a high-class performer by running out the easy three lengths winner. Those wins secured O'Brien and Moore the respective titles of Leading Trainer and Leading Rider for the meeting.

Earlier that day, the Willie Mullins-trained Thousand Stars, who had run exceptionally well without winning in many of last season's top hurdle races, gained a well-deserved big-race win in the valuable Grande Course De Haies D'Auteuil at Auteuil in France. Given a sublime ride by Ruby Walsh, the son of Grey Risk arrived with a well-timed challenge to lead on the run-in and prevail by 1 1/2 lengths, with his stable mates Mourad and Final Approach finishing fourth and fifth respectively.

The following weekend Aidan O'Brien took charge on Saturday's meeting at the Curragh, saddling three winners that included Misty For Me in the featured Group 1 Stobart Ireland Pretty Polly Stakes. Given an excellent front-running ride by Seamie Heffernan, the three-year-old beat the top-class British raider Middy by an easy six lengths. The next day, O'Brien continued his domination of the Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby, saddling his third successive 1-2-3 in it with Treasure Beach leading home the charge. Ridden by Colm O'Donoghue, the son of Galileo led home his stable mates Seville and Memphis Tennessee, with the British raider Carlton House held in fourth.

At the beginning of the month, the focus of the racing world was very much on the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown and what was one of the most anticipated Flat races of recent years very much lived up to all expectations, with the Aidan O'Brien-trained So You Think getting the better of his main rival Workforce by half a length. Ridden by Seamie Heffernan, the five-year-old tracked Workforce until being asked to challenge in the straight, battling gamely to lead inside the final furlong and forge on close home.

The good times continued to roll for Ballydoyle as just a week later, Aidan O'Brien enjoyed a notable success in America, sending Cape Blanco to Belmont to win the Man o'War Stakes. Given a well-judged ride by Jamie Spencer, the four-year-old out-stayed his opposition to win the $600,000 contest by an authoritative 2¹/₄ lengths.

Back on the National Hunt scene, there was bad news for jockey Ruby Walsh, as he was ruled out of action until at least September following a fall at Killarney. After visiting Cork University Hospital, it was discovered that he had crushed a vertebra in his neck and also tore a ligament off a vertebra.

Not for the first time, Frankie Dettori stole the show on a Group 1 day at the Curragh, riding the Mahmood Al Zarooni-trained Blue Bunting to a dramatic success in the featured Darley Irish Oaks. Banimpire, Wonder Of Wonders and Laughing Lashes were engaged in a terrific duel for the lead for much of the final furlong, but Dettori delivered his mount late and fast to grab the verdict by a short-head in the very last stride, celebrating in style much to the delight of the crowd.

On the same afternoon, jockey Niall McCullagh continued his fine season by partnering the John Oxx trained Manieree to an all-the-way win in the Kilboy Estate Stakes as she defeated stable companion Kirinda in good style while earlier in the day David Wachman's Fire Lily took the Anglesey Stakes and English raider

Captain Carey just lasted home in a tight finish to the Brady's Mercedes Benz Rockingham Handicap over five furlongs.

At Leopardstown in late July, the Jessica Harrington trained Remember Alexander looked a smart filly when winning the Korean Racing Authority Tyros Stakes in fine style under Johnny Murtagh while on the same card, Dermot Weld's wonderfully consistent Famous Name added yet another course victory to his impressive cv with a comfortable success in the Jockey Club Of Turkey Meld Stakes over Dunboyne Express.

While the imperious Frankel stole the show at Glorious Goodwood by bolting up in the Sussex Stakes, David Wachman and Wayne Lordan teamed up for a notable Irish success on the Tuesday of the meeting, with Requinto running out the comfortable winner of the Group 3 Bet365 Molecomb Stakes. The son of Dansili looked in trouble at halfway, but picked up strongly to lead inside the final furlong and record a 1¹/₄ lengths success.

Dermot Weld has long been known as the King of Ballybrit, but his dominance of the Galway Festival was taken to an all new level at the 2011 festivities. Weld's previous-best tally of winners at the meeting was 11, but he simply destroyed that total, saddling a truly remarkable 17 winners over the course of the week.

In terms of the feature races on the week at Galway, the thetote.com Galway Plate produced a thrilling finish, with the Willie Mullins-trained Blazing Tempo coming out on top. Ridden by Paul Townend, who had only returned from injury a few days earlier, the seven-year-old arrived with a sweeping challenge to lead inside the final furlong and record a 1¹/₄ lengths success. The next day, the Guinness Galway Hurdle produced a popular winner in the shape of the Paul Flynn-trained Moon Dice. Ridden by Tom Doyle, the lightly-raced six-year-old was prominent from the outset and having hit the front at the final flight, he forged much to the delight of his ecstatic winning owners.

Not for the first time, Frankie Dettori stole the show on a Group 1 day at the Curragh

The month commenced with the sad news that Canford Cliffs, one of the leading milers of recent years, had been retired due to injury. Trained by Richard Hannon and ridden by Richard Hughes, the five-time Group 1 winner had hung uncharacteristically when beaten by Frankel in the Sussex Stakes at Glorious Goodwood and was found to have a pastern injury that was considering too risky to race on with. The four-year-old will stand as a stallion at Coolmore Stud.

For the third year in succession, Team Ireland took the spoils in the Shergar Cup at Ascot, though victory looked unlikely right up until the closing stages of the final race. With a team made up of captain Richard Hughes, Fran Berry and Colm O'Donoghue, the Irish made a slow start to proceedings, but in a dramatic conclusion, Fran Berry won the final race with Colm O'Donoghue finishing second, which was enough for Ireland to snatch an unlikely victory.

Veteran trainer Kevin Prendergast made a welcome return to the Group 1 winner's enclosure at the Curragh, saddling La Collina to record a shock 33/1 success in the featured Keeneland Phoenix Stakes. Ridden by Declan McDonogh, the daughter of Strategic Prince produced a withering turn of foot to snatch the verdict close home from the previously unbeaten Power.

La Collina had lost her unbeaten record at the hands of the Aidan O'Brien-trained Maybe on her previous start and that rival had already endorsed that form by winning the Group 2 Keeneland Debutante Stakes just thirty minutes earlier, with the daughter of Galileo sprinting home to record an impressive lengths success under Joseph O'Brien. The other Group race on the card was the Group 2 Keeneland Royal Whip Stakes and it produced a popular success for the ultra-tough Banimpire for Jim Bolger and Kevin Manning.

The following weekend, Aidan O'Brien enjoyed a remarkable day at Arlington Park in America, saddling the winners of two of the Grade 1 contests on the card from just two runners. The Irish Derby winner Treasure Beach got the ball rolling by recording a game neck success in the Secretariat Stakes under Colm O'Donoghue and Cape Blanco completed a remarkable evening for O'Brien by running out the easy winner of the Arlington Million under Jamie Spencer.

A week later, Fran Berry had a day to remember at the Curragh, winning the two most valuable races on the card, with the highlight coming on the Jessica Harrington-trained Dragon Pulse in the featured Group 2 Galileo EBF Futurity Stakes. Berry's other win was perhaps even more dramatic, with him riding the Vincent Ward-trained Fictional Account to an unlikely neck victory over the Ascot Gold Cup hero Fame And Glory in the Listed Irish Field St Leger Trial Stakes.

Perhaps the main talking point of that weekend was that the dramatic Epsom Derby winner Pour Moi had been retired to stud by his connections after suffering a severe overreach during exercise at Chantilly. Andre Fabre's charge had been favourite for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

The month was closed with the Aidan O'Brien-trained Maybe stamping herself as the best juvenile filly in Europe, with her being very impressive indeed when taking the feature race at the Curragh, the Group 1 Moyglare Stud Stakes. The daughter of Galileo was always travelling like the winner under Joseph O'Brien and having hit the front two furlongs out, she was soon in charge and had 1³/₄ lengths to spare over Fire Lily at the line.

SEPTEMBER 2011

The St Leger meeting at Doncaster proved to be a highly successful one for Irish-trained horses

The Irish Champion Stakes meeting at Leopardstown got the month underway in style and So You Think took centre stage, winning the featured Group 1 Red Mills Irish Champion Stakes in gritty style. Aidan O'Brien's charge was given a no-nonsense ride by Seamie Heffernan, but the son of High Chaparral had to fight to get the better of the gallant Snow Fairy. Away from the main event, Dermot Weld and Pat Smullen had a day to remember, with Emulous running out the impressive three lengths winner of the Group 1 Coolmore Fusaichi Pegasus Matron Stakes and Galileo's Choice winning the Group 3 Kilternan Stakes by in stylish fashion

The St Leger meeting at Doncaster proved to be a highly successful one for Irish-trained horses. The John Oxx-trained Alanza got the ball rolling on the Thursday by narrowly winning the Group 3 Sceptre Stakes under a sublime waiting ride from Johnny Murtagh and later that day the Aidan O'Brien-trained Reply won the valuable Wetherbys Insurance £300,000 2-Y-O Stakes under Joseph O'Brien. The Irish success continued on Friday, with the David Wachman-trained Requito grinding out a short-head success in the Group 2 Flying Childers Stakes under Wayne Lordan and the John Oxx-trained Saddler's Rock registering a comfortable success in the featured Group 2 Doncaster Cup under Niall McCullagh. David Marnane rounded off the meeting for the Irish by winning the valuable Portland Handicap for the second time in three years courtesy of the Neil Callan-ridden Nocturnal Affair.

Back on the domestic front, Group 1 action returned to the Curragh with the Goffs National Stakes being won by the Aidan O'Brien-trained Power. The son of Oasis Dream had to pull out all the stops under Seamie Heffernan to see off the late challenge of Dragon Pulse by half a length. The other Group 1 on the card, the Irish Field St Leger, produced a dramatic dead-heat between the British raiders Jukebox Jury and Duncan. Trained by Mark Johnston and John Gosden respectively, the two engaged in a terrific duel from early in the straight, with Johnny Murtagh and Eddie Ahern giving it their all, but the judge couldn't split them after they hit the line together. The highlight of the remainder of the action was unquestionably the highly-promising winning debut of the John Oxx-trained Born To Sea in the Listed Irish Field Blenheim Stakes, with the three-parts brother to the legendary Sea The Stars quickening up impressively to prevail by one and a half lengths under Johnny Murtagh.

The Listowel Harvest Festival continues to be one of the success stories of Irish racing and the featured Guinness Kerry National Handicap Chase on the Wednesday had a familiar look to it, with Alfa Beat gaining his second consecutive success in it. Trained by Charles Byrnes to win the 2010 renewal, John "Shark" Hanlon had taken over the training of the seven-year-old in May and he produced the son of Environment Friend in great shape to record a ready success under Barry Geraghty.

The following weekend saw Ger Lyons secure his first Group 1 win as a trainer by saddling Lightening Pearl to win the Cheveley Park Stakes at Newmarket. Ridden by Johnny Murtagh, the daughter of Marju quickened to the lead two furlongs out and held on for a half length victory. Elsewhere on the card, the Group 2 Royal Lodge Stakes resulted in an absolute domination by Aidan O'Brien-trained horses, with the Ballydoyle maestro saddling the Colm O'Donoghue-ridden Daddy Long Legs to lead home his stable mates Tenth Star and Wrote.

On the same day back in Ireland, Andy Oliver gained the first Group winner of his training career at Gowran Park, saddling Flowers Of Spring to win the featured Group 3 Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies Stakes under Chris Hayes.

The month was ended by yet another Aidan O'Brien domination of a meeting at the Curragh, with him completing a treble that included the featured Group 2 Juddmonte Beresford Stakes with the Seamie Heffernan-ridden David Livingston.

OCTOBER 2011

October usually sees the return to action of many of National Hunt racing's, star performers and while the reigning Champion Chaser Sizing Europe was widely expected to make a triumphant return at Gowran Park on the opening day of the month, he needed a substantial helping hand to win the featured Grade 2 Pricewaterhousecoopers Champion Chase. Henry De Bromhead's stable star was well held back in second only to be gifted the win after the clear leader Rubi Light fell at the final fence, leaving Andrew Lynch's mount to grind out a dour success over Coolcashin.

Later that evening on the other side of the Atlantic Ocean, the Aidan O'Brien-trained Cape Blanco bravely held off the late challenge of Dean's Kitten to win the Grade 1 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at Belmont Park. The son of Galileo answered Jamie Spencer's every call in the closing stages and the performance was made to look all the more admirable after it emerged that the four-year-old had suffered a career-ending slab fracture to his knee during the race.

The Irish domination of the top juvenile races in Britain continued at Newmarket the following weekend, with Irish-trained two-year-olds winning the three most high-profile juvenile races on the outstanding card. The feature race was the Group 1 Dubai Dewhurst Stakes and it saw Jim Bolger send out his fourth winner of the race in the last six renewals, with Parish Hall grinding out a game half length success under Kevin Manning. Aidan O'Brien took charge thereafter, with the Seamie Heffernan-ridden Crusade causing a 25/1 shock in the Group 1 Middle Park Stakes and the Ryan Moore-ridden Wading winning the Group 2 Rockfel Stakes.

On the point-to-point front, jockey Jamie Codd entered the history books at Tinahely, becoming just the second jockey in history to partner all six of the winners at a meeting.

The only previous rider to achieve this remarkable feat was John Berry twenty three years ago.

The inaugural British Champions Day took place at Ascot in the middle of the month and while the amazing Frankel stole the show with another impressive win in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, Aidan O'Brien made his mark on the card by saddling Fame And Glory to win the Qipco British Champions Long Distance Cup. Given a sublime ride by Jamie Spencer, the five-year-old made most of the running and had enough in reserve to see off the challenge of Opinion Poll.

Aidan O'Brien wasn't finished for the day, as later that evening he enjoyed yet another big-race success in America, saddling Together to gain a well-deserved first win in Grade/Group 1 company in the Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Stakes at Keeneland. The daughter of the all-conquering Galileo was ridden by Colm O'Donoghue and having hit the front over a furlong out, she forged on to record a 1¹/₄ lengths success.

The following weekend saw Aidan O'Brien unleash a potential star of the future in the shape of Camelot after the son of Montjeu won the Group 1 Racing Post Trophy at his ease at Doncaster. Given an ultra-confident ride by Joseph O'Brien, the well-backed 10/11 favourite sprinted clear in the final furlong to record a very impressive success. The Jim Bolger-trained Zip Top completed an Irish 1-2 by rallying gamely to claim the runner-up position.

The month was wrapped up by the much-anticipated return to the track of the highly-promising juvenile Born To Sea in the Group 3 JRA Killavullan Stakes at Leopardstown, but it was the Aidan O'Brien-trained Nephrite that stole the show. Ridden by Joseph O'Brien, the son of Pivotal exhibited an impressive turn of foot to see off his main market rival by 1¹/₂ lengths.

NOVEMBER 2011

“ The following day saw Johnny Murtagh regain the Champion Flat Jockey crown as the Irish Flat season came to a close at Leopardstown ”

The first weekend of November was choc-full of top-class action under all codes and first out of the blocks was the JNwine.com Champion Chase meeting at Down Royal. The main event produced a tremendously exciting finish, with the Colm Murphy-trained Quito De La Roque swooping from a seemingly impossible position to nail Sizing Europe close home. Davy Russell's mount looked to be a lost cause from a long way out, but responded gamely to pressure and finished strongly to overhaul the reigning Champion Chaser by 1¹/₄ lengths.

Later that evening in America, Aidan O'Brien enjoyed one of the most memorable days of his training career on the second day of the Breeders' Cup meeting at Churchill Downs, saddling a remarkable double that was highlighted by the win of St Nicholas Abbey in the Emirates Airline Breeders' Cup Turf. Ridden by Aidan's 18-year-old son Joseph, the son of Montjeu showed a withering turn of foot to stretch right away and prevail by 2¹/₄ lengths, giving Joseph the honour of becoming the youngest ever winning jockey at the Breeders' Cup. That win completed O'Brien's brace, as he had already saddled the Ryan Moore-ridden Wrote to record a comfortable success in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

The following day saw Johnny Murtagh regain the Champion Flat Jockey crown as the Irish Flat season came to a close at Leopardstown. Meanwhile Joseph O'Brien was crowned Champion Apprentice with 57 wins to his name, while his father Aidan was awarded Champion Trainer for the 14th time.

The Grade 2 Clonmel Oil Chase is the feature of Clonmel's racing year and this year's renewal saw Edward O'Grady continue his tremendous run of form by sending out Tranquil Sea to take the spoils. Ridden by Barry Geraghty, the nine-year-old hit the front before the penultimate fence and drew on to record a four lengths success, his second consecutive victory in the race.

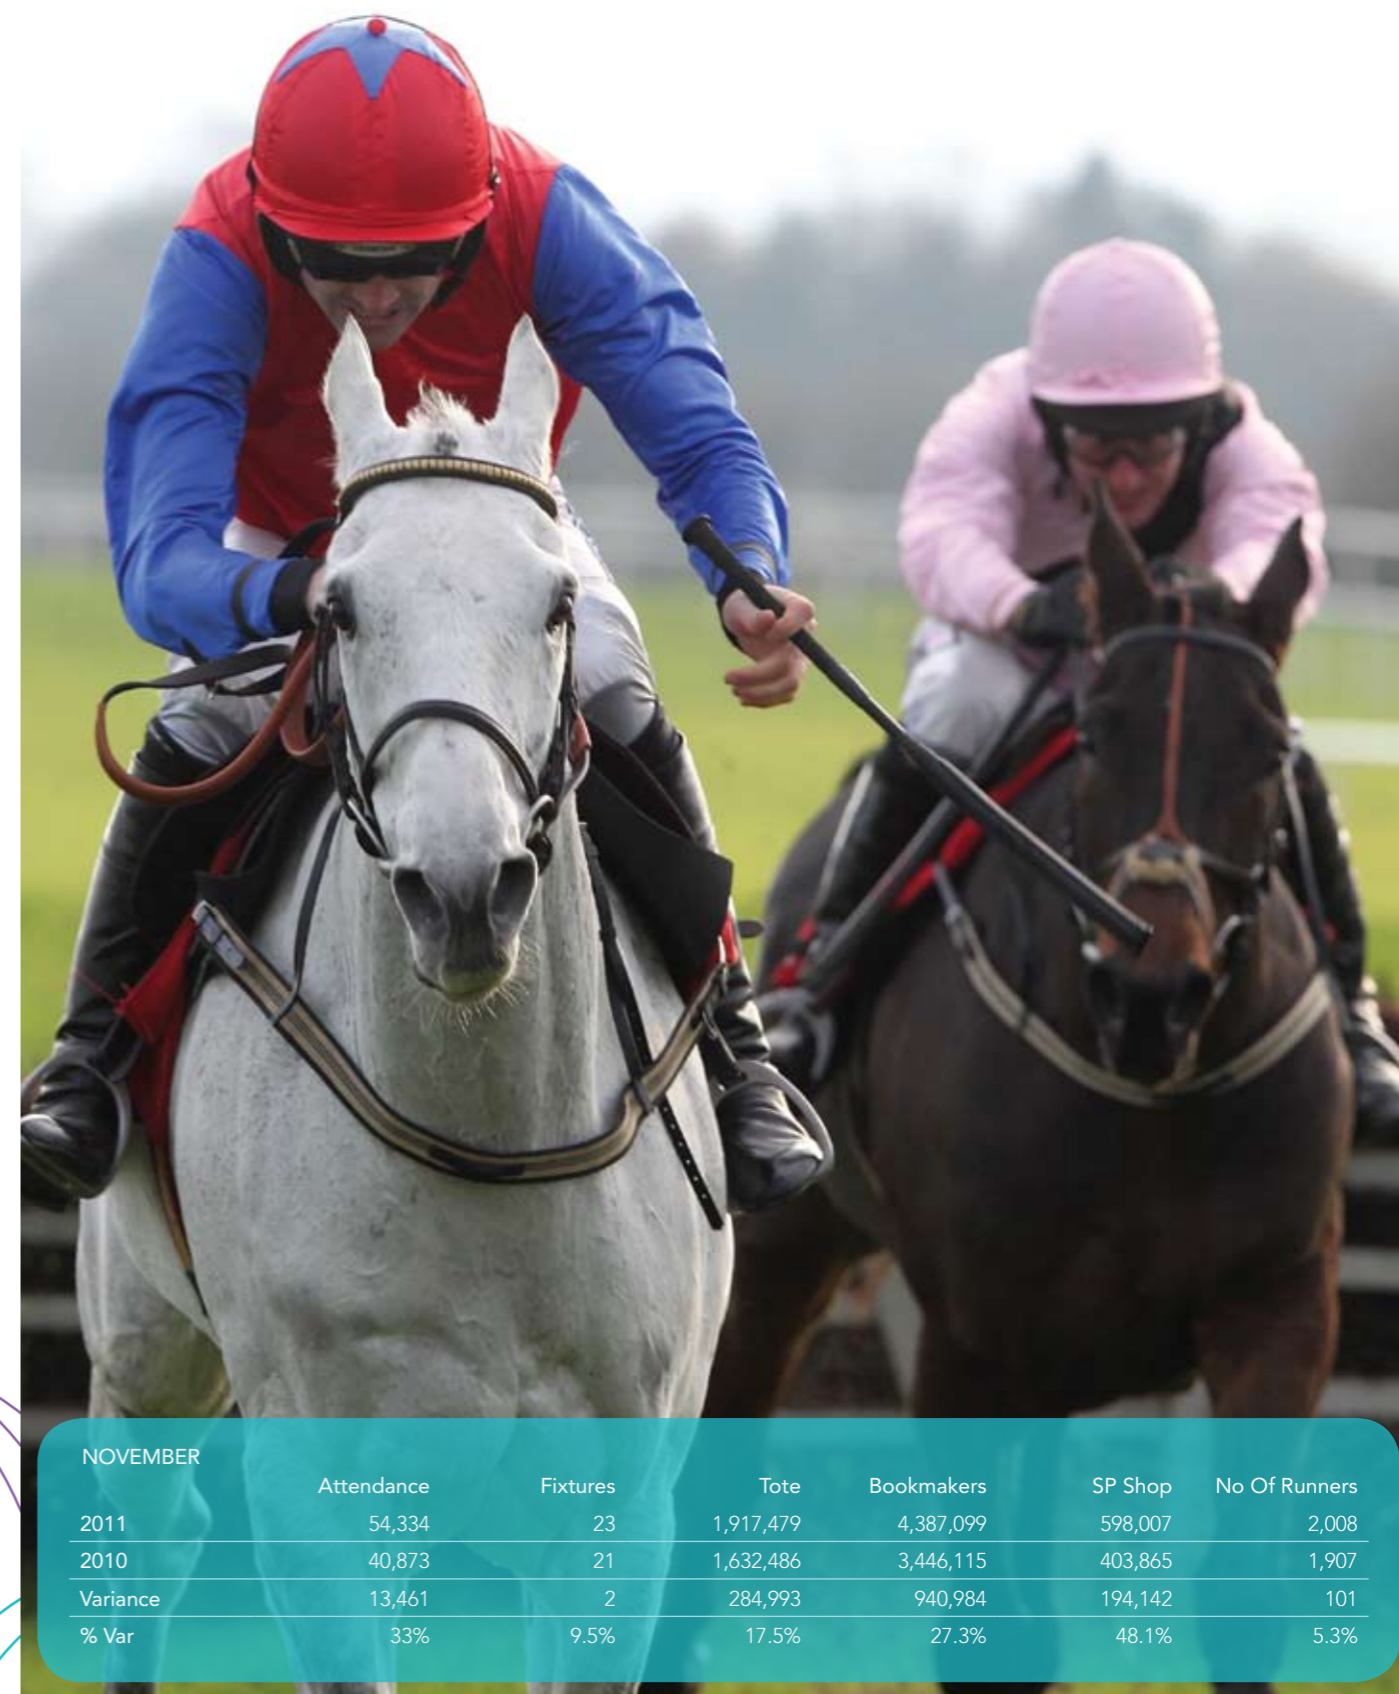

The following weekend saw Colm Murphy enjoy a lucrative day at the office at Navan, sending out his two stable stars to claim both the Grade 2 contests on the card. Voler La Vedette got the ball rolling in the Lismullen Hurdle, sprinting clear on the run-in to record an easy success under Andrew Lynch. The big-race double was completed in the Fortria Chase, with the exceptional chaser Big Zeb winning the race for the third consecutive year, asserting close home and recording a two lengths success under Barry Geraghty.

Willie Mullins completely dominated the latter half of November and the pick of his many big days during that period came at Punchestown on Morgiana Hurdle day, with him completing a remarkable four-timer that included the feature race with Thousand Stars. Ruby Walsh gave the seven-year-old a positive ride, making all the running and keeping enough in reserve to beat off the challenge of the Jessica Harrington trained.

The month was closed by the always-exciting Ladbrokes.com Troytown Handicap Chase at Navan and it produced a dramatic finish, with Groody Hill swooping very late indeed to claim Ad Idem close home. Christy Roche's five-year-old looked to have too much ground to make up at the second-last fence, but he responded gamely to Alan Crowe's urgings to power home and lead in the final strides to record a half length success.

The pick of the remainder of the action on the card was the Grade 2 Irish Form Book "Monksfield" Novice Hurdle and it produced a promising winning performance from the Gordon Elliott-trained Mount Benbulbin. Given a strong ride by Davy Condon, the six-year-old had to dig deep to get past the game Rebel Fitz, but eventually mastered that rival by 1¹/₂ lengths.

DECEMBER 2011

December was kicked off by a notable Irish success in Britain, with the Henry De Bromhead-trained Sizing Europe returning to his brilliant best to win the Grade 1 Sportingbet Tingle Creek Chase at Sandown in great style under Andrew Lynch.

The very next day, Lynch completed a memorable weekend by riding the Colm Murphy-trained Voler La Vedette to win the featured Grade 1 Bar One Racing Hatton's Grace Hurdle at Fairyhouse. Ruby Walsh rode the winners of the other two Grade 1 contests on the card, partnering the Willie Mullins-trained Sous Les Cieux to an authoritative success in the Bar One Racing Royal Bond Novice Hurdle and the Tony Martin-trained Bog Warrior to a very impressive success in the Bar One Racing Drinmore Novice Chase.

Grade 1 action returned to Punchestown a week later and the featured John Durkan Memorial Punchestown Chase produced an impressive winner in the shape of the Robbie Hennessy-trained Rubi Light. The talented six-year-old was in command from a long way out under the in-form Andrew Lynch and had five lengths to spare over the rallying Joncol at the line.

The annual Horse Racing Ireland awards were held in the Leopardstown Pavilion in Dublin on Monday 12th December. Simon Coveney the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine, presented the six awards and the winners were:

Horse of the Year:
Hurricane Fly

National Hunt Award:
Willie Mullins

Outstanding Achievement Award:
Nina Carberry

Flat Award:
Joseph O'Brien

Point to Point Award:
Derek O'Connor

Contribution to the Industry Award:
Dermot Weld

A frozen chase track may have resulted in the following Sunday's card at Navan being reduced to four races, but that didn't stop Willie Mullins and Ruby Walsh dominating proceedings, combining to win the two most valuable contests on the card including the featured Grade 1 Navan Novice Hurdle with Boston Bob. The other Mullins/Walsh success came courtesy of the win of Zaidpour in the opening Grade 2 Tara Hurdle.

Sir Des Champs was the star attraction on Limerick's St Stephen's Day card and the promising five-year-old duly delivered in the featured Grade 2 Greenmount Park Novice Chase. Willie Mullins' charge looked to have a race on his hands approaching the second-last fence, but he was left clear after Knockfierna dramatically ran out at that obstacle, leaving the winner to prevail by an eased-down seven lengths under Emmet Mullins.

The Grade 1 Racing Post Novice Chase was the main event on the opening day of the Leopardstown Christmas Festival and it was the Willie Mullins-trained Blackstairmountain that claimed the prize under Paul Townend.

Big Zeb was the star performer on the second day of the Christmas Festival at Leopardstown, winning the Grade 1 Paddy Power Dial-A-Bet Chase for the third time. Colm Murphy's stable star travelled well for Robbie Power and was delivered with a well-timed challenge to lead early on the run-in, forging on to record a 1^{1/4} lengths success. The other Grade 1 on the card was the paddypower.com Future Champions Novice Hurdle and it was the Edward O'Grady-trained Cash And Go that took the spoils under Andrew Lynch.

The substantial prize for the Grade 1 Lexus Chase went for export after the Jonjo O'Neill-trained Synchronised took the spoils in the feature race on the third day of the Leopardstown Christmas Festival. The eight-year-old exhibited stamina in abundance under a power-packed ride from Tony McCoy to prevail by 8^{1/2} lengths. The other Grade 1 on the card was the Topaz Fort Leney Novice Chase and it produced a promising winning performance from the Philip Fenton-trained Last Instalment, with the six-year-old jumping exceptionally well on his way to recording a six lengths victory under Brian O'Connell.

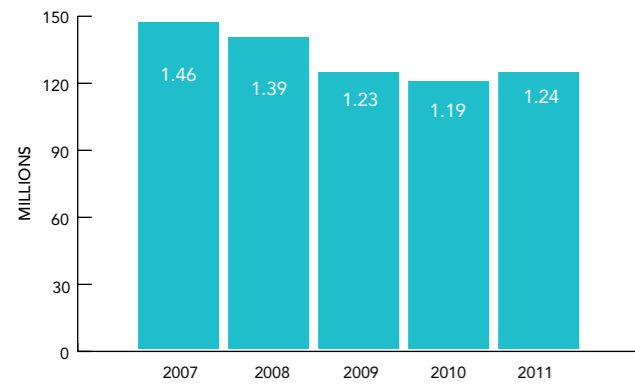

The main event on the final day of the Leopardstown Christmas Festival was the Grade 1 Istabraq Festival Hurdle and it produced an impressive winner in the shape of the Dermot Weld-trained Unaccompanied. Given a well-judged ride by Paul Townend, the four-year-old quickened up in taking style to beat off the challenge of Thousand Stars by an authoritative 1^{1/2} lengths.

GO RACING KIDS CLUB

2011 HRI AMBASSADORS

More than 2,600 children were involved in the 2011 HRI Schools Racing Education Initiative. This was the second year of the 'Go Racing Kids Club'. Children from primary schools in the local area experienced a behind the scenes look at a racecourse, followed by a day at the races for the children, their parents and teachers.

The initiative focuses on educating the younger generation about horse racing and showing them what happens behind the scenes at the races, making them feel a part of their local community racecourse and hopefully encouraging an affinity with racing to become the racegoers of the future. The initiative could not have been executed without the commitment and time given by some of Ireland's top Trainers and Jockeys.

In 2011 seven racecourses took part:-

- Ballinrobe
- Fairyhouse
- Galway
- Kilbeggan
- The Curragh
- Tipperary
- Tramore

On the day the children visited four stations;

1. A Trainer - brings a racehorse and explains how to train a racehorse, what the horse eats, how much exercise it needs, how to saddle up, how their yard prepares for a big race day, etc.
2. A Jockey - brings the pupils into the inner sanctum, the weigh room; they get to see and feel the Jockey's gear, from a saddle to the racing silks, their safety equipment including skull cap, back protector, goggles, etc. The Jockey gives a general talk about horse racing and how he rides in a race and answers any questions they may have.
3. RACE - the Racing Academy & Centre of Education talk through how to become a Jockey and get a job in the industry. They bring a young Jockey along on the day and a simulator. Some lucky pupils get to sit on the simulator and feel what it's like to ride a racehorse. This station is the most popular amongst the pupils.
4. Racecourse Manager - brings children through the preparation for a race day and on a tour of the Racecourse, including walking some of the track and they'll get to see a fence/ stalls up close and how the fences are made.

HRI NATIONAL HUNT AMBASSADOR - DAVY RUSSELL

Davy Russell was appointed HRI's NH ambassador for the 2011/12 season, following in the footsteps of Jockey Barry Geraghty and Trainer Willie Mullins. As part of his new role, Davy gives race goers an insight into his daily routine as first Jockey at Gigginstown House Stud and documents his preparations for upcoming race meetings. Like so many future stars of the weigh room, Davy began his riding career in the point-to-point field. He rode his first winner between the flags in February 1999 and wasted little time in rising to national prominence.

In recent seasons, Davy Russell has firmly established himself as one of the top riders in the country and is undoubtedly the most progressive jump Jockey in the weigh room. He has immersed himself into his role and is using his position to draw attention to key issues. He took part in the well known 'Movember' campaign alongside some of his weigh room colleagues to raise awareness of men's health issues. The participating Jockey's had their 'Mo's' shaved off at Fairyhouse Racecourse on 4th December.

RISING STARS OF FLAT RACING 2011

The objective of the 'Rising Stars' initiative is to increase the profile of Flat racing and allow race goers and the general public to get an insight into the work and lifestyle of these up and coming Jockeys. The 'Rising Stars' document their victories and challenges to provide an accurate description of the life of a young Jockey.

GARY CARROLL

The twenty-one-year-old Kildare native, who is based at Michael Halford's yard, has claimed the Champion Apprentice title on two previous occasions. Gary's talent was evident when he adopted front-running tactics to post a double on Jazz Girl and Solaras Exhibition at Tramore in August.

BEN CURTIS

The Kinsale native is currently based at John Oxx's stables in Kildare. He shared the title of Champion Apprentice in 2010 and has had another very successful campaign in 2011. One of the highlights was guiding White Diamond to victory in the Irish Stallion Farms European Breeders Fund Fillies Handicap at Navan.

JOSEPH O'BRIEN

Based at Ballydoyle, the eighteen-year-old has enjoyed a number of notable wins to date. 2011 saw him claim his first Classic when he took the Irish 2,000 Guineas in May. He rode a total of 57 winners and now holds the record for the most winners by an apprentice Jockey, a record formerly held by Paul Carberry with 54 winners.

CROWNING OF CHAMPIONS

Each year Horse Racing Ireland rewards the outstanding achievements of those that shine in the sport of horse racing. For the National Hunt bodies it was the closing day of the season at the Punchestown Festival where they received their perpetual bronze sculptures of three horses jumping, inscribed with the title 'winners since 1947'.

The Siobhan Bulfin sculptures were presented to the Champion Trainer, Jockey, and Owner. The leading Qualified Rider and Claiming Professional received perpetual silver trophies, made by Alwright and Marshall Silversmiths.

The award winners for the 2011/12 season were as follows:

NATIONAL HUNT CHAMPIONS

CHAMPION NH OWNER - JP MCMANUS

JP McManus made history by winning the Champion National Hunt Owner title for the fifteenth time.

Champion NH Trainer - Willie Mullins
Willie Mullins was crowned Champion National Hunt Trainer for the fourth consecutive year after another spectacular season, in which he trained 106 winners with Hurricane Fly being his star performer winning 5 Grade One races during the course of the season including the Champion Hurdle at Cheltenham.

CHAMPION JOCKEY - PAUL TOWNEND

Paul Townend picked up the Champion Jockey title for the first time with 80 successes after a remarkable season, which saw him partner the Willie Mullins trained Hurricane Fly to victory in the BHP Insurance Irish Champion Hurdle at Leopardstown in late January while he also recorded his first Cheltenham Festival success on Arthur Moore's What A Charm in the Fred Winter Juvenile Handicap Hurdle.

CHAMPION CONDITIONAL JOCKEY - BRYAN COOPER

Bryan Cooper was named as Champion Conditional Jockey after riding his first double in Kilbeggan. He had a number of notable successes such as Definite Class in a valuable novice hurdle at Fairyhouse and a first listed race win on Coscorrig in the John Fowler Memorial European Breeders Fund Mares Chase at the Fairyhouse Easter Festival.

Champion Qualified Rider - Patrick Mullins
Patrick Mullins claimed his fourth consecutive Champion Qualified Rider title with a fine total of 31 winners which gave him a 7 winner advantage over his nearest rival Nina Carberry.

FLAT CHAMPIONS

TRAINER CHAMPIONSHIP - AIDAN O'BRIEN

Aidan O'Brien had another hugely successful year which yielded numerous impressive results. He trained over 93 winners including a ninth Irish Derby with Treasure Beach while See You Think won the Irish Champion Stakes and Maybe took the Moyglare Stud Stakes.

CHAMPION PROFESSIONAL JOCKEY - JOHNNY MURTAGH

After a hotly contested campaign, Johnny Murtagh took the title of Champion Professional Jockey with a double at Leopardstown, giving him 83 winners for the season. This is his fifth time to take home the award. One of the highlights of the year was securing victory in the Irish St Leger at the Curragh on the English-trained Jukebox Jury (dead-heated for first place).

CHAMPION APPRENTICE - JOSEPH O'BRIEN

Joseph O'Brien was the clear winner of the prestigious title this year with a record breaking 57 winners. He had a wonderful season with a memorable victory on Roderic O'Connor in the Abu Dhabi Irish 2000 Guineas at the Curragh in May, which gave him his first Classic success. He also partnered the talented Maybe to win the Moyglare Stud Stakes over the same course in late August.

CHAMPION FLAT OWNER - DERRICK SMITH

(In partnership with Mrs. Sue Magnier and Mr. Michael Tabor)
Also Champion owner in 2010, the former trading director of Ladbrokes bookmakers highest-profile representatives were: Camelot, Fame And Glory, Mastercraftsman, St Nicholas Abbey and Septimus.

JOG FOR JOCKEYS 2011

Over 780 people took part in the Jog for Jockeys 5K on August 28th at numerous racecourses around the country. The event raised €25,000 for the Injured Jockeys Fund. Each racecourse welcomed many well known faces ranging from Jockeys to Irish rugby stars.

Among the 167 runners in Cork were Munster & Irish rugby player Mick O'Driscoll, TG4 Racing's Mick O'Houlihan, Jockeys Wayne Lordan, Paddy Mangan and Rising Star Ambassador Ben Curtis.

The crowd was 50 people strong at Down Royal, where Trainers Andy Oliver, Sarah Dawson and Connor O'Dwyer, a large Amateur rider contingent led by Derek Fitzsimons and Mark O'Hare, Down Royal Manager Mike Todd and Chairman of Jnwine.com Jim Nicholson of all took part.

There was a great deal of excitement at Galway racecourse as over 90 participants got into the spirit to support the cause. There were many well known faces there on the day including Hector O'hEochagain and Jockeys Barry Geraghty, Ian McCarthy and Tim Carroll.

The 5k at Leopardstown attracted 159 runners, including John Younghusband, who cycled over 30 hours to get there from Lambourne in the UK. Jockeys Robert Power, Emmet McNamara and Andrew Duff along with Trainer Gordon Elliott and RTE's Shane O'Donoghue all got into their running gear to support the cause. There was also a big contingent from Derrinstown Stud and the Irish Field present on the day.

David Casey, John Cullen and Ruby Walsh were the official starters at Naas racecourse as the 315 runners took their marks. Amongst those on the starting line were Tony Smurfit, Trainer

Willie McCreery, Dr Adrian McGoldrick, Jockeys Shane Foley, Gary Carroll and Nina Carberry, Katie Walsh and Niall McCullagh, Ruby Walsh's wife Gillian, Kildangan's Joe Osborne and Yeomanstown Stud's Guy O'Callaghan.

The Irish Injured Jockeys Fund was formed to raise money for the Turf Club racing charities. These charities each provide important funds in case of serious accident and also provide maintenance for those beneficiaries in need of long term support.

HRI AWARDS 2011

The annual Irish Horse Racing Awards were hosted by Horse Racing Ireland in the Leopardstown Pavilion, Dublin. This was the ninth year of the awards, which are voted on by the Irish Racing Media to recognise excellence in the sport of horse racing. Hurricane Fly was crowned the 2011 Horse of the Year following in the footsteps of last year's winner Big Zeb.

Champion National Hunt Trainer Willie Mullins made it a hat trick by claiming the National Hunt Award once again. His handling of Hurricane Fly, who had a memorable victory at Cheltenham was one of the highlights for the Clonsutton based trainer.

Joseph O'Brien took home the Flat Award after a remarkable season with 57 winners while the Outstanding Achievement category was claimed by Nina Carberry who had a memorable triumph on the Arthur Moore Trained Organised confusion in the Ladbrokes Irish Grand National at Fairyhouse on Easter Monday. By winning Ireland's premier steeplechase, she became only the second female rider to triumph in the history of the race. The Point to Point Award was once again claimed by Derek O'Connor, who is now the record breaking eight times Irish Field Champion surpassing Enda Bolger and Bill McLernon.

Dermot Weld was presented with the Contribution to the Industry Award. He had another successful year, saddling his 3,500th winner in Tipperary in April, while his incredible achievement of saddling a record breaking 17 winners at the Galway Summer Festival was a truly magnificent feat. Amongst his amazing achievements throughout his near 40-year training career are 8 Champion Trainer Titles in terms of prizemoney, 22 Leading Trainer Titles in terms of winners trained, while he has also been Leading Trainer at the Galway Festival on 27 separate occasions. Weld made history when he became the first trainer to saddle 100 winners in an Irish Flat Racing Season which he achieved in 1985.

Denis Brosnan, Chairman of Horse Racing Ireland commented on 2011: "I am delighted that Minister Coveney has given us a strong commitment to see the racing industry properly financed through betting duty. The extension of the levy to remote betting sites and exchanges will come into effect from the second quarter of next year, which is the vital first step in providing racing with an adequate and secure funding arrangement which no longer relies upon a government subvention. Long-term security of funding is essential if we are to plan for and develop the Irish racing and breeding industry, so that we can play a significant role in the national economic recovery by establishing Ireland as the country of choice for investment in horses, horse training, racing, equine skills education, racing tourism, breeding and training establishments and land for equine development."
