INTRODUCTION 2022

The Covid pandemic upended peoples lives and their businesses, and so it was heartening that, for the first time since 2019, the racing and breeding industry could report on a normalised year in 2022.

When we set last year's figures against the last comparable pre-pandemic ones from 2019, we can see that for most key statistics across the industry there were significant gains. The full-year statistics are listed on the pages of this, the eighteenth edition of the Horse Racing Ireland Factbook.

While they point to a stabilising of many of the figures achieved during the Covid-affected years of 2020 and 2021, many areas, notably ownership, horses-in-training, Tote betting and bloodstock sales, are well ahead of 2019.

We can all be proud of the terrific results that our owners, breeders, trainers and jockeys enjoyed over the course of the year. Victories once again in the Gold Cup, Champion Hurdle, Champion Chase and Stayers Hurdle featured among 18 Irish-trained winners at the Cheltenham Festival, our third-highest total. There were 10 Irish-trained Grade 1 winners across the four days, 15 winners, six of them in Grade 1 races, were Irish-bred and nine Irish-based jockeys rode winners at the meeting.

With 10 winners of his own, Willie Mullins played a starring role at Cheltenham and the family name was back in lights the following month as Irish-trained horses filled the first three places in the Aintree Grand National for the fourth year running with victory going to Emmet Mullins' Noble Yeats.

On the Flat, Irish-trained horses were among the Classic winners in Ireland and Britain, there were Irish Group 1 winners in France and Grade 1 winners in America along with notable top-level success at Royal Ascot and at the Breeders' Cup.

Reported attendances rallied strongly in the second half of 2022 for a total crowd figure of 1.248m for the year. This represents a 5.1% decrease compared to 2019. Our 'Proper Day Out' marketing campaign, showcasing racing as an exciting experience, was launched in June and is shown to have hit home with more than nine out of every 10 people that went racing before the pandemic already back in attendance. Driving racecourse attendance is central to our objectives and by continuing to increase interest in the sport, we can be confident that crowd figures will grow again.

I want to pay tribute to the work put in by the tracks and, testament to that work, the strong product on offer and the level of interest in the sport, is the fact that 45 race meetings from 14 racecourses are scheduled to broadcast on RTE and TG4 in 2023.

Almost seven out of every 10 runners in Ireland won prizemoney in Ireland in 2022, 5,686 horses in total, and that's the highest number we have ever reported in this category. It's an important indicator for us because we acknowledge the incredible loyalty displayed by owners to Irish racing during the Covid pandemic when numerous restrictions were in place.

Ownership figures remain hugely encouraging. Compared to 2019, the total number of owners is up 17.1% to 4,757. Greater numbers are becoming involved in ownership and it is exciting that the number of syndicates has grown for the fourth year in-a-row to 825, an increase of 3.4% on 2021 and up 24.2% on 2019. This figure includes 240 syndicates set up for the first time in 2022, a very telling figure and pointing to the ever-present popularity of the sport.

The Ownership Department of Horse Racing Ireland continues to focus on retention and acquisition of new owners with the aim of making racing and racehorse ownership a fabric of society through education and experience. Our goal is to breakdown the barrier to entry, create a community of owners, improve the on and off-course experience for owners and develop the international message and awareness.

The total number of horses-in-training for 2022 was 10,208 an increase of 14.1% on the 2019 figure, but 3.5% lower than in 2021 when a significant number of older horses, excluded from running in point-to-points, were registered to allow them to compete on the racecourse. The number of fixtures fell back to 388 from a record 394 in 2021. The first six months of the 2021 fixture list saw a readjustment to the racing calendar to accommodate point-to-pointers on the racecourse, fixtures that reflected in that year's total entries, eliminations, runners and the numbers of horses-in-training.

Once again, there was a notable increase in the overall figure for bloodstock sales at public auction which came in at €215.4m. It represents a rise of 30.3% on 2019 and is 17.8% ahead of the 2021 figure. A number of bloodstock sales performed especially strongly, namely the Goffs Land Rover Sale, Tattersalls Ireland Derby Sale, Goffs Orby Sale, Goffs November Foal & Breeding Stock Sales and the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze Up. Irish-foaled horses were sold to 34 countries while the overall value of those horses sold through auction was €293.2m.

While total betting on-course lags 3.7% behind the 2019 figure of €78.9m at €76m, total Tote betting of €71.2m shows an increase of 18.3% on the same year.

A strong racing and breeding sector reflects well on the country as a whole. Rural communities in every county on the island see the benefit every day of an industry that continues to deliver for Ireland.

The annual Horse Racing Ireland Factbook provides a comprehensive overview of the Irish racing and breeding industry. We would be delighted to hear from you if you believe that there are additional areas that should be covered.

THE HRI AWARDS 2022

Leading owner JP McManus and Kevin Manning were among those honoured at the annual Horse Racing Ireland Awards in The Round Room at The Mansion House, Dublin in December.

Winner of the Contribution to the Industry Award, JP McManus is a 19-time champion National Hunt owner in Ireland. He has been associated with many of the top jumps' horses for over 40 years, enjoying well in excess of 4,000 winners, a list that includes Mister Donovan, Jack Of Trumps and Deep Gale, big early winners in the famous green and gold hoops. The legendary Istabraq was a three-time winner of the Champion Hurdle, a race JP McManus also won on five other occasions, while the Cheltenham Gold Cup went his way with Synchronised and there was Aintree Grand National glory with both Don't Push It and Minella Times.

Kevin Manning brought the curtain down on a truly terrific career that spanned 40 years with a farewell winner for his great ally Jim Bolger at Galway in October and he was recipient of the Irish Racing Hero Award. Kevin was champion apprentice in 1984 and again in 1987 and his career would yield 36 Group 1 winners that included Epsom Derby success on New Approach in 2008. Kevin also won the Irish Derby on Trading Leather and enjoyed multiple Classic success along with a famous win in the 2004 Hong Kong Cup on Alexander Goldrun.

The Kenny Alexander-owned Honeysuckle was crowned Horse of the Year for the second consecutive year. She brought her winning run to 16 races as she remained unbeaten for a fourth season, adding the Hatton's Grace Hurdle for a third time in December 2021, winning both the Irish Champion Hurdle and the Champion Hurdle at the Cheltenham Festival for a second time before thrilling a record crowd of over 40,000 on the penultimate day of the Punchestown festival with a repeat success in the Champion Hurdle at Punchestown.

Sam Ewing won the Emerging Talent Award. Starting out as an apprentice on the Flat, Sam has established himself as a dual-purpose jockey, notably with no claim as a springboard for his career in the National Hunt sphere.

The National Hunt Award went to Henry de Bromhead. He again took the Cheltenham Festival by storm becoming the first trainer to complete back-to-back Champion Hurdle and Gold Cup doubles since Hatton's Grace and Cottage Rake won for Vincent O'Brien in 1949 and 1950.

John 'Shark' Hanlon won the National Hunt Achievement Award. He scored a notable hat-trick of wins with his new stable star Hewick, the TJ McDonald-owned seven-year-old had Jordan Gainford in the saddle when landing the historic bet365 Gold Cup Handicap Chase at Sandown in April, adding the Tote Galway Plate in July and rounding off 2022 with a famous win in the American Grand National Hurdle Stakes at Far Hills in October.

Liz Lalor took the Point-To-Point Award having created history at Comea in February when she rode Read To Return to victory, the 110th winner of her career in the pointing fields, to break Helen Bryce-Smith's long-standing record to become the winning-most female rider in point-to-point history. Liz, a nine-time ladies' champion rider, ended the season with a career total of 114 winners.

Billy Lee won the Flat Award. He enjoyed a terrific 2022 season, pushing Colin Keane all the way in the jockeys' championship. His season's tally was easily the best of his career and included Group 1 wins on the Paddy Twomey-trained La Petite Coco and Pearls Galore. Rosscarbery, Rumbles Of Thunder, Treasure Trove and Teresa Mendoza were also notable winners for the Ballingarry, County Limerick jockey.

Dual champion apprentice Dylan Browne McMonagle was recipient of the Flat Achievement Award. The Letterkenny jockey certainly had another superb year and he retained his champion apprentice title with a final tally of 49 winners. He hit the big time in 2022 with a breakthrough Group 1 success on the Joseph O'Brien-trained Al Riffa in the Goffs Vincent O'Brien National Stakes at the Curragh on Longines Irish Champions Weekend.

For his last-gasp success on Waterville in the Friends Of The Curragh Irish Cesarewitch, Wayne Lordan landed the 2022 Ride of the Year Award. Davy Russell and Fran Berry were tasked with nominating six rides to be put to a public vote and Wayne's winning effort saw him top the poll.
