INTRODUCTION 2021

Confidence in the racing and breeding industries is reflected in so many of the figures on the pages of this, the seventeenth edition of the Horse Racing Ireland Factbook. Full-year returns for 2021 in the areas of ownership, horses-in-training and bloodstock sales not only show significant growth on the previous 12 months but are also well ahead of the pre-pandemic figures achieved in 2019.

The impact of Covid-19 had a wide-ranging effect on all our lives in 2021. While the total number of fixtures held was a record at 394, with over 3,000 races being run for the first time, Government guidelines at the time prohibited public attendance for the first six months.

Attendances were capped at 500 from July to early September with racecourses permitted to operate at 50% capacity for the remainder of the year.

These restrictions did allow for an increase in the number of racegoers on the 2020 attendance figures but unsurprisingly the numbers fell well short of previous years. Similarly, on-course betting turnover, while up on the previous year's figures, was severely impacted and lagged well behind 2019 totals. Pandemic-enforced retail closures of high-street betting offices in Ireland and the UK negatively impacted on overall betting and Tote figures during the year.

But the underlying strength of the industry has shone through in other key areas. There was a telling increase in the number of owners, up 20.1% to 4,901 and significantly the owner retention figure came in at all-time high of 80.7%. All categories of ownership, syndicates, companies and clubs included, have grown significantly in the past two years.

The knock-on and most welcome effect of this is yet another rise in the all-important figure for horses-in-training, up for the fifth time in six years. Increased owner investment secures employment across the industry and has a positive impact on the wider economy of rural Ireland.

The extra demand for racing opportunities stemming from the increased number of horses-in-training is reflected in the modern-day fixture list. An increased number of racemeetings, both Turf fixtures and All-Weather Fixtures, is scheduled for 2022 with a number of fixtures held in reserve for when the demand of the horse population is at its greatest.

Having taken a significant hit in 2020 when so many of the major horse sales were severely disrupted, it was hugely encouraging to see Irish Bloodstock sales recover so well last year. The overall yield for bloodstock sales at public auction in 2021 was €182.8m, the second highest figure on record, thanks to a number of sales performing well.

There was a noticeably strong trade at the Irish store sales and buyers from 22 countries purchased at Irish yearling sales. Irish-foaled horses sold to 31 countries, an increase of two on the previous year.

Cuts imposed in response to Covid-19 resulted in a significant reduction in the levels of prize money in 2020. This was always intended to be a temporary measure and thankfully that figure bounced back last year, rising 22.2% to €61.82m. However, that figure is 6.4% below the total amount won in Ireland in 2019 and it remains a priority to return to that point at least in the short-term.

Building commercial sponsorship back up to previous levels is also of high importance. The return of racegoers will make it more attractive for perspective sponsors to engage with our racecourses. It will be crucial that we attract sponsors from outside the industry, highlighting the advantages to them of partnering with a strong sport, one that has greatly increased its popularity during the pandemic.

Results of the Red C poll conducted in February of 2021 showed that the numbers with an interest in horse racing rose significantly to 40%, up from 23% in 2020, and an overwhelming number of racing fans said that they missed attending racemeetings while Covid-19 restrictions were in place.

There was a telling increase in the number of racemeetings broadcast on terrestrial television in the past two years and a record number of free-to-air fixtures will be televised both this year and in 2023.

The annual Horse Racing Ireland Factbook provides a comprehensive overview of the Irish racing and breeding industry. We would be delighted to hear from you if you believe that there are additional areas that should be covered.

ATTENDANCE 2021

TOTAL ATTENDANCE 2017 - 2021

In keeping with Government Covid-19 guidelines, attendances at Irish racemeetings were severely curtailed in 2021, similar to that of 2020. There was no public attendance at any racemeeting in the first six months of 2021.

The published figures on these pages relate to the numbers that attended from July 6 to September 5 which was limited to 500, while racecourses operated at 50% capacity for the remainder of the year.

The attendance figure at all meetings before July 6 is recorded as zero. As a result of these measures, the total attendance figure for 2021 was down 82.4% on 2019.

MAPS OF BREEDERS & TRAINERS

THE HRI AWARDS 2021

History makers Rachael Blackmore, Henry de Bromhead and Colin Keane were among the winners of the 2021 Horse Racing Ireland Awards.

Rachael Blackmore received the accolade of Irish Racing Hero on the back of an outstanding year that saw her crowned the leading jockey at the Cheltenham Festival only weeks before her 2021 Aintree Grand National win.

For her tireless work in ensuring that racing continued to run smoothly and safely during the Covid-19 pandemic, Dr Jennifer Pugh, Senior Medical Officer of the IHRB, was honoured with the Contribution to the Industry Award.

Henry de Bromhead was the winner of the National Hunt Award. In March 2021, he broke new ground when becoming the first trainer to win the Champion Hurdle, Champion Chase and the Gold Cup at the Cheltenham Festival in the same year. He rewrote the record books a matter of weeks later when becoming only the second trainer, and the first since 1908, to saddle the first two horses home in the Aintree Grand National.

The Flat Award went to champion jockey Colin Keane. Colin was the star performer of the 2021 Irish Flat Season, dominating from a jockeys point of view as he captured a third riders' title. He notched up the fastest century of winners, bettered Joseph O'Brien's 2013 total of 126 and then set a new record of 141 winners with a final day double at Naas.

The Kenny Alexander-owned Honeysuckle again won all before her and took the Horse of the Year Award. Easily the most popular horse in training, she topped a remarkable season with success in the Champion Hurdle at the Cheltenham Festival. She rounded off the 2020/2021 season when winning the Champion Hurdle at Punchestown at the end of April and made a stunning start to her 2021/2022 campaign with a third successive win in the Grade I baroneraing.com Hatton's Grace Hurdle at Fairyhouse.

From Letterkenny, County Donegal, Dylan Browne McMonagle crowned a terrific year with the Emerging Talent Award. He rode an impressive 48 winners to become champion apprentice and his season's highlights included a first Group race success on Baron Samedi and a first win at Listed level with Mighty Blue, two of the 24 winners he rode during the season for Joseph O'Brien.

Success at both the Dublin Racing Festival and the Cheltenham Festival with Heaven Help Us saw Paul Hennessy win the National Hunt Achievement Award. The mare was one of the star performers at the beginning of the year, racing to victory in the Irish Stallion Farms EBF Paddy Mullins Mares Handicap Hurdle at Leopardstown's Dublin Racing Festival before winning the Coral Cup by all of nine lengths at Cheltenham. The John Turner-owned seven-year-old was ridden on each occasion by Richie Condon.

John Nallen had three weeks in spring 2021 that will last a lifetime and was the winner of the Point-to-Point Award. Two horses that started out with him in the point-to-pointing field went on to win two of the biggest prizes in racing. Minella Indo, which had made a winning debut for the Clonmel hotelier in a five-year-old maiden at Dromahane in March 2018, won the Cheltenham Gold Cup almost three years to the day of his initial success and three weeks later it was the turn of Minella Times to propel John back into the spotlight when racing to Grand National success at Aintree.

Ado McGuinness won the Flat Achievement Award for his late season success with A Case Of You in the Prix De L'Abbaye. The Lusk-based trainer enjoyed significant premier handicap, Listed and Group race wins in the preceding months but reached a new level as the Gary Devlin-owned three-year-old scored a memorable last-gasp Group 1 victory at ParisLongchamp in October.

The 2021 Ride Of The Year Award was a public vote and Darragh O'Keeffe's winning effort on A Plus Tard in the Savills Chase at Leopardstown Christmas Festival 2020 won him the title. It was Darragh's first outing in a Grade 1 race and he made the most of the opportunity to land one of the biggest races of the National Hunt season.
